

OTH PARTIES CLAIM VICTORY

IND-UP OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGN IN U. S. A.

Mr. Taft Hopes to Offset Bryan Majority in Greater
New York.

New York, Nov. 2.—The last turn given to-day to the political wheel of the year, the opening of the polls in the twenty-four hours away, the leaders of the two great parties are giving their attention to the last day of what has been one of the most exciting campaigns in many years. Mr. Taft speaks this afternoon in England, and to-night winds up his campaign for the presidency at Youghan, going thence to Cincinnati to be to-morrow and hear the results of balloting.

Mr. Bryan is touring Northwestern Iowa, and expects to reach his home in Lincoln tonight. He will get the news of a special wire which has been run into his farm at Fairview. There was no change to-day in the announced estimates of the opposing national chairman, Mr. Hitchcock, of the Republican national committee, siding steadfastly to his forecast of votes for Mr. Taft, and Mr. Mack, the Democratic national committee, pronouncing himself as equally certain that Mr. Bryan will receive 227 of the votes in the electoral college.

The last day of the campaign found Mr. Hitchcock early at his offices in the metropolitan tower, and he will remain there until 12 o'clock to-night, when he leaves for West Newton, Mass., to cast his vote. He will return Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hitchcock went out late last night for delivery of a series of telegrams to national committee men and to state chairmen, giving them their last instructions. Not a single state was allotted. To-day the Republican chairman is in telegraphic and telephone communication with leaders of the party in all sections of the country. He advised them last night to feel at liberty to consult with him either by wire or over the long distance telephone as local conditions or details needing attention. The Republican campaign accordingly entered the telegraphic state to-day, and visitors to headquarters made their calls, brief here were few callers of note, however, as practically all the leaders who have been here in consultation with the national chairman returned to their respective homes last week.

National Chairman Mack, of the Democratic party, also sent out his last instructions to each chairman at night, and at Democratic headquarters in the Hoffman house to-day the same rule as to telegraphic and telephone communication prevailed. The Republican organization of New York state is making its final bid for victory "Below the Bronx." To-day Governor Hughes is expected to deliver ten speeches in this city before midnight. The local Republican leaders have received their instructions from State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff and County Chairman Herbert Parsons. They are working upon the belief that they will hold the Bryan-majority in Greater New York to the neighborhood of 80,000, and that Mr. Taft will come down to the Bronx with a plurality from the up state counties sufficient to cover the Democratic vote in the city and leave a margin of 100,000 in his favor. The Tammany district leaders in New York county and the leaders in Brooklyn (Kings), Long Island City (Queens) and Staten Island (Richmond) have also had their last instructions from headquarters.

The Democrats claim that Mr. Bryan will have an unusually heavy majority from up-state. They claim that party unity prevails in every section of the state for the first time in a decade, and depending upon the labor vote, they believe to turn the tide in their direction. The result as to the state tickets remains on the balance, and the confident claims of success put forth by both sides are apparently based upon hope rather than upon definite information.

Political observers here declare that there never has been a state election so difficult to forecast, and are waiting for the polls to decide the contest between Governor Hughes and Lieutenant Governor Chandler. Leaders of both parties agree that Governor Hughes will run behind Taft, but the Republicans say that the difference will not be so great as to imperil the governor's chances for re-election. The Democrats claim that Mr. Chandler will have an easy victory. They base their claim partly upon the opposition Governor Hughes which developed prior to his nomination, to the unity of the Democratic party, to the personal popularity claimed for the Democratic candidate up state, and to the fact that New York governor is running for a second term usually with a greatly reduced vote. There are many different phases and many varying elements entering into the state campaign this year that party men seem bound to be broken on both sides, and the usual political means of casting the result are apparently less. The best opinion appears to be that the state is in doubt, and that the counting of the votes can be ended upon to determine the result.

WALL STREET LAYS 8-1 AGAINST BRYAN

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Odds of sixty thousand to one, perhaps the greatest ever put up, are offered by James O'Leary, stock yards broker, against Messrs. Chaun, DeLo, Hagen and Watson, presidential candidates of the four minor parties. Wall street offers as high as eight to one against Bryan.

POTTERY WILL DOUBLE OUTPUT

GROWING DEMANDS REQUIRE ADDITIONS

Vernon Sewerage System Will Be Supplied From Local Works.

The capacity of the local pottery in the line of sewer pipe will be doubled. This step is taken in order to keep up with the demands put upon it. The company, under the management of A. T. Monteith, has steadily advanced until it has become necessary to put in increased machinery. The intention is to double the machinery equipment which will make it possible to more than double the output if that is found necessary. At present there is need for a substantial increase in the line of sewer pipe, and if the equipment warranted it a wider market could be sought. The present limitations of the plant preclude the management making efforts to secure trade that it is felt could be obtained. Mr. Monteith has just returned from Vernon, where he secured an order for the pipes for the new sewerage system in that city. This will call for about 25 carloads, which will be delivered from time to time as required. It is estimated that the laying of the pipe will occupy about a year's time, as it is to be done by the employment of labor found in the city.

'You know that I have signed to meet Johnson,' Burns says, 'but you may not know that I am getting my price as I am all up in the referee's office in London. Johnson gets $5,000, with $10,000 and an extra $3,000 for his end of the moving pictures and three round trip tickets from London to Australia.'"

BUELOW MAY GO OUT OF OFFICE

FAMOUS INTERVIEW TOO MUCH FOR CHANCELLOR

Berlin Discussing His Probable Successor — Emperor and
"Mad English."

Berlin, Nov. 2.—In spite of the fact that Crown Prince Frederick will visit Chancellor Von Buelow this morning, which is an indication that the chancellor retains the imperial favor, there are many rumors current that the chancellor will persist in retiring as an outcome of the publication of the now famous interview with the Emperor that appeared in the Daily Telegraph last night. Various statesmen are mentioned to succeed him. According to the latest report, the health of Foreign Secretary Von Schoel has improved.

The Daily Telegraph gave the greatest prominence to an interview between the Kaiser and a representative Englishman, who long since has passed from public to private life. The Englishman, who apparently is a diplomatist, writes: "Moments sometimes occur in the history of nations when calculated indiscretions prove of the highest public service. It is for that reason that I have decided to make known the substance of a long conversation which it was my recent privilege to have with Emperor William. I do so in the hope that it will help to remove an obstinate misconception of his character and whose feelings toward England, I fear, is deeply rooted in the ordinary Englishman's breast."

"His Majesty spoke with impulsive and unusual frankness, saying: 'You speak peace and it was one of my March hares. What has come over you that you so completely are given over to suspicions that are quite unworthy of a great nation? What more can I do than I have done? I declared, with all the emphasis at my command, in my speech at Guild Hall, my heart was set upon peace and it was one of my dearest wishes to live on the best terms with England.'"

"Have I ever been false to my word? Falseness and prevarication are alien to my nature. My actions ought to speak for themselves, but you do not listen to them. Those who misinterpret distort them. That is a personal insult which I resent. 'To be forever misjudged and to have repeated offers of friendship weighed and scrutinized with jealous mistrust taxes my patience severely. I have said, time after time, that I am a friend of England. Your press, or at least a considerable section of it, bids the people of England refuse my proffered hand. It insinuates, on the other hand, the head of a dagger. How can I convince the nation against its will? The prevailing sentiment among the large sections of the middle and lower classes of my own people is not friendly to England. I am, therefore, to speak in the minority in my own land, but just as it is in England the best elements just as it is in England respecting Germany.'"

"Reverting to his efforts to show his friendship for England the Kaiser said that he had not been hostile to England throughout the Boer war. Undoubtedly the newspapers were hostile and public opinion was hostile."

"But what," he asked, "did official Germany do, and what brought to a sudden stop, indeed, to an absolute collapse, that European tour of the Boer delegates, who were striving to obtain European intervention? They were feted in Holland, France, who gave them a rapturous welcome. They wished to come to Berlin, where the German people would have crowned them with flowers, but when they asked me to receive them I refused."

MAKING FOR EFFICIENCY IN RUSSIAN NAVY

Number of Admirals to Be Re- tired Before Douma Will Vote Money.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—It is understood in well-informed naval circles that Admiral Wierens, president of the technical commission of the admiralty, will shortly retire from his post. The commission has been under heavy fire of late for tardiness in the designing of warships. It is stated also that several other admirals are soon to be placed on the retired list. This is the first important step in the reform of the admiralty demanded by the Douma as a condition of passing adequate appropriations for naval purposes.

U. S. RUNNERS WILL COMPETE AT HAMILTON

Thanksgiving Day Race Ar- rangements Approved by by C. A. A. U.

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 2.—Notwithstanding that there is no reciprocity between Canada and the United States at present owing to the disagreement between the two governing bodies, the C. A. A. U. refusing to accept C. A. A. U. cards while the latter body is more generous in that respect, the Thanksgiving day race here, as usual, will have several runners from across the line. Sammy Miller, the winner in 1902 and 1903 making the record in 1:48:43 in the latter year, which still stands, will be among them. The presence of the foreigners is quite acceptable to the Hamilton people and the C. A. A. U. though it causes considerable worry to boss Sullivan and his union, Harold Parsons, of Neepawa, who won the Telegram race in 1907 and 1908, and made such a good showing in the Hamilton Herald race last Thanksgiving Day, is again entered for next Monday.

DIES IN ACT OF SAVING HIS FRIEND'S LIFE

Owen Sound, Ont., Nov. 2.—Alfred Bruce, an Englishman, is dead, and Wm. Myers, whose life he saved at the cost of his own, escaped with burned hands. Both men were engaged extending and repairing the Bell telephone system. Myers came in contact with a live wire. When Bruce attempted to go to his assistance the steel spur on one of his boots came in contact with the live wire. At the time this happened Bruce had a grip of the ground wire. Death was almost instantaneous. At the moment Bruce's heel struck the power wire Myers was set free.

LORD MILNER IN OTTAWA.

English Statesman Talks of Conditions in South Africa.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Lord Milner, address to the Canadian Club on Saturday was in contrast to previous addresses which he has delivered in Canada. He had an audience consisting of 300 representative men of Canada, and sat in the front of the hall, in contrast to his previous addresses in South Africa, where he referred especially to transportation and race problems. He expressed the hope that the conference now in progress at Durban would result in the confederation of South Africa.

(Special to the Times.)

VICTORIA GETS MORE POWER AND LIGHT

Heavy Rainfall Helps to Solve Difficulties—Gorge Service Through From Town.

The heavy rain which fell throughout yesterday has gone a long way towards solving the difficulties under which Victoria has been laboring with respect to a shortage of power and light.

A. J. Goward, local manager of the B. C. Electric Company, interviewed this morning announced that from this time on the cars on the Gorge and Esquimalt routes would resume their old time runnings, the former as a twenty minute service straight through to town, and the latter every fifteen minutes.

The lighting in residences and in downtown houses will remain on all night. Up to midnight it will be still impossible to have this up to the full candle power, but from 12 p. m. until daylight the full force will be in operation.

"With a quarter of an inch more rainfall," said Mr. Goward, "we will be able to resume the full service of both power and light."

PREMIER WARD FAVORS VICTORIA ROUTE

London, Nov. 2.—A Wellington, New Zealand, cablegram says the parliamentary elections take place on the seventeenth with the liquor question as the issue.

PREPARING FOR BIG CONVENTION

MAYOR HALL WILL EXTEND CIVIC WELCOME

Reduced Steamer Rates for Members of Arctic Brotherhood

For the Arctic Brotherhood convention, commencing here on Wednesday next, the organization through President Thomas Bruce has made a special steamer rate for all members from Seattle by the Princess Victoria of $2.50 the round trip. The special rate is good from Nov. 4th at 8:30 a. m. and return by the C. P. R. line on Sunday, November 8th. The tickets are in charge of the Arctic Club, Seattle.

Preparations at the Empress hotel, where the members of the Grand Camp will stay during their sojourn here, are now being made for their reception on arrival Wednesday. The whole of one floor has been reserved for the event and has been taken by the members and their wives.

The organization will be the guests of the city at several functions while here, and will be welcomed by Mayor Hall at the Victoria theatre after lunch on Wednesday. The actual business of the order, which will be represented by some three hundred here, will be commenced Thursday afternoon and will be conducted in the usual manner, after which the members will be further entertained by the city at Mr. Clement's concert in the Institute hall, and at a civic reception at the Empress where Mrs. Hall will preside and receive the guests and their wives. Mrs. Hall will be supported by a representative committee of Victorian ladies and the event will take an informal shape as soon as the guests have been received.

Among other entertainment the visitors will be shown the city in large parties, accommodated on trolley cars. Several of the party are expected to return home Thursday, but the greater number will remain in Victoria until the departure of the Seattle boat Sunday.

PEKIN SILENT OVER ARMADA'S VISIT

Presence of U. S. Battleships is Hardly Noted in Chinese Capital.

Pekin, Nov. 2.—The presence of the second squadron of the United States battleship fleet at Amoy, where the vessels arrived on Friday, and where the men are now being entertained by the Chinese government, is hardly known in Peking. The Chinese papers have said nothing at all about the visit, and the presence of the fleet is being completely ignored both officially and otherwise, that is, so far as Peking is concerned.

This probably is because the festivities in connection with the birthday of the Empress Dowager are coincident with the entertainment of the visiting Americans. The Japanese newspapers alone in Peking have any information regarding the doings at Amoy.

This silence is the more remarkable because the native press has during the past few weeks given much space to promulgating the idea of an alliance with the United States.

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 2.—General elections are being held throughout the colony to-day, following a bitter campaign. RECOUNT HAS BEEN FINISHED

BARNARD'S MAJORITY SLIGHTLY INCREASED

Conservative Candidate for Victoria Leads by Thirteen Votes.

The recount is over and the result is to leave G. H. Barnard elected as member for Victoria city with a majority of thirteen.

Saturday afternoon Judge Lampman tallied the count of the ballots in the twenty-five boxes. From these eighty-eight ballots, eight taken from those rejected by the deputy returning officers and eighty from the voting papers counted for one candidate or the other, were set aside for argument to-day. Both sides challenged the validity of ballots in about equal proportion. The figures at the close of the count Saturday were: Templeman, 2,126; Barnard, 2,139.

An analysis of the ballots in dispute by the lawyers engaged showed that they were evenly divided, and that whatever the ruling of the court on the different classes of ballots—some marked by indelible pencil and some without deputy returning officer's initials—it would affect both candidates alike and leave the majority as the close of Saturday's count left it. It was decided, accordingly, that it would only be a waste of time to enter into argument on the disputed ballots, and when Judge Lampman adjourned at noon to-day to hear counsel, Col. F. B. Gregory announced that he did not desire to press the recount further.

The judge proceeded, without hearing argument, to dispose of the disputed ballots. Eight of these he rejected, including one marked in red for Hon. Wm. Templeman and one marked in blue for Mr. Barnard. Of the others he counted in forty for Mr. Templeman and forty-eight for Mr. Barnard, certifying his recount to the returning officer as follows:

Templeman 2,126
Barnard 2,139

A formal declaration will be made by Returning Officer Hick of this result.

VOTERS LIST REVISED.

Formal Proceedings For City and For Esquimalt Taken Place.

The revision of the provincial voters' lists for the city and for Esquimalt took place to-day, before Harvey Combe, registrar of voters for these two electoral divisions. The proceedings were purely formal.

In the city there were 285 names added and 66 were struck off as dead, removed, duplicates or at the voters' own request. Owing to the way in which the list for the city is numbered it is impossible to say how many names there are now on the list. The numbering runs up to 6,445, but there are many numbers omitted and in other places names have been added and the numbering repeated with the addition of lettering. It is the intention of the registrar to re-number the list throughout.

On the Esquimalt list there were 24 additions made, and 7 names struck off.

FLANAGAN'S GREAT THROW.

New York, Nov. 2.—John F. Flanagan added a half inch to the sixteen-pound hammer throw mark yesterday at the games of the All-Canadian Athletic Association at Elizabeth, N. J., making a throw of 173 feet 7 1/2 inches. The mark will not stand, however, as the throw was made from a circle marked with a string instead of an iron hoop and was slightly down hill. The record is held by McGrath, who made it in the Canadian championship in 1907.

SITUATION IN VENEZUELA.

Second Dutch Note.

The Hague, Nov. 2.—No blockade of the ports of Venezuela by the Netherlands government has been ordered yet, nor will any definite action be taken until the government receives the official text of President Castro's reply to the second Dutch note. As has already been stated, however, Holland is fully prepared for any navy demonstration, including a blockade, that the circumstances may demand.

"Agitation immediately died away and the delegation returned empty-handed. Was that a sign of a secret enemy. Again when the struggle was at its height the German government was invited by France and Russia to join them in calling upon England to end the war. The Kaiser had come they said, not only to have the Boer republic, but also to humiliate England to the dust. What was my reply? I said so far from Germany joining any concerted European action to bring pressure against England, to bring about her downfall, Germany would always keep aloof from politics that would bring her into complications with a sea power like England. "Posterity will one day read the exact terms of the telegram now in the archives of Windsor Castle in which I informed the sovereign of England of the answer I returned to hers which then sought to compass her fall. Englishmen who now insult me by doubting my word should know what my actions were in the hour of their adversity. "Nor was that all. During your black week in December, 1899, when disasters followed one another in rapid succession I received a letter from Queen Victoria, my revered grandmother, written in sorrow and affliction bringing manifest traces of the anxieties which were preying upon her mind and health. I at once returned a sympathetic reply. I did more. I had one of my officers procure an exact account of the combats on both sides and the actual positions of the opposing forces. With the figures before me I worked out what I considered the best plan of campaign under the circumstances and submitted it to my general staff for criticism. Then I dispatched it to England. That document likewise is among the state papers at Windsor awaiting the impartial verdict of history. "Let me add, as a curious coincidence the plan which I formulated ran much on the same lines as that actually adopted by Gen. Roberts and carried by him into successful operation. Was that the act of one who wished England ill? Let Englishmen be just and say."

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM VICTORY

In Maryland.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 2.—The campaign in Maryland has virtually closed and to-day will be devoted to putting the finishing touches on for to-morrow's battle. Both the leading sides lay claim to the victory, the Democrats insisting that they will carry the state by at least 8,000 and that they will elect all of the congressional candidates. This claim is disputed by the Republican leaders who declare that Tait will surely carry Maryland by a handsome majority. Conservative opinion, however, is that the result will be close.

Colorado Rumor.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 2.—Interest in the election centres in the probable outcome of the application of the Democratic managers to the Supreme court to appoint special watchers for Heurman and Laszunas counties to prevent alleged plans to rig up a big Republican majority by fraud, which might change the results in the whole state.

The funeral of the late Capt. R. Collier took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, Craigflower road, and later at Christ Church cathedral. There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends present, and a large number of beautiful floral offerings were sent, which showed the esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Canon Beaulieu officiated at the church and cemetery. The following acted as pallbearers: Capt. Gasdin, Capt. Cook, R. Brown, J. A. Thompson, Richard Hall and J. Jeffcott.

IMPEACHMENT HANGS OVER JAMES JARDINE

Section of Asiatic Exclusion League Take Exception to His Politics.

John Jardine, M. P., has incurred the displeasure of at least a section of the Asiatic Exclusion League, and it is proposed to "impeach" him as president of the organization. The crime which is alleged against Mr. Jardine is that he supported Hon. William Templeman and Ralph Smith at the elections. The resolution of impeachment sets forth that the Conservative and Socialist candidates only should have been supported. A meeting of the league is to be held to-morrow evening in Labor hall, when the following resolution is to be submitted: "Whereas during the recent political campaign, in which locally the Asiatic policy of the Laurier administration was the main issue, John Jardine, M. P., president of this league, in contravention of his avowed principles of total exclusion of Asiatics from Canada, and of his office as president of this league, did actively support and work for the re-election of Messrs. Templeman and William Templeman, and against the Conservative and Socialist candidates, who squarely stood for total exclusion of the Asiatics; "And whereas the attitude of the president has been treasonable to the country and false and recreant to the league, therefore this meeting declares the office of president vacant, and here and now will nominate and elect a new president."

CHINESE SCHOOL IS OPENED TO-DAY

Small Attendance Greeted the Teacher at First Session.

The Flagstaff street Chinese school opened this morning with an attendance of only eighteen instead of forty as had been anticipated. The reason given by Mrs. Wheeler, the teacher in charge, for the smallness of the numbers, is that the Chinese do not read the daily papers and consequently did not understand the change which was being made. It is expected that there will be more present to-morrow. There were five bright little girls present this morning clad and shod as any ordinary Victoria child would be, with the exception that they all wore earrings, and that the colors of their dresses were rather more brilliant in hue than is customary for every day school wear. Some of the boys wore queues, but several had the closely cropped head and knockabout suit of the ordinary school boy. The older boys appeared very studious and were supplied with large dictionaries, containing the English and Chinese words, and when in doubt they consulted these diligently. They read the lessons from the different text books intelligently and with expression; their pronunciation being very much better than one would expect.

Many of them write very nicely, and have a fair knowledge of elementary arithmetic. When it is plain work, but when it comes to a written problem they are very much puzzled as they have then the intricacies of the English language to contend with, as well as the problem itself. Special attention is paid by the teacher to the construction of sentences. She gives them a number of words and from these words they construct sentences.

During the month of October there were five runs made by the fire department. None of the fires amounted to much.

There will be a social evening to-morrow, held in St. John's hall, Herald street, for the congregation and their friends. A small fee will be taken at the door to defray expenses. A good programme will be rendered and refreshments served.

The death occurred at the Chinese Refuge Home yesterday of Zew Ken Oi, daughter of Kong Sing Wing, deceased was a native of China and was five years of age. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock from the Chinese home, Cormorant street.

The death occurred this morning at the family residence, 3899 Cook street, of Ann Whitte, wife of William Whitte, after an illness extending over several months. Deceased was a native of Northampton, England, and was 49 years of age. The remains have been removed to the parlors of the B. C. Furnishing Company, whence the funeral will take place on Wednesday at 2:15 p. m., and St. John's church, where the service will be conducted at 2:30. The interment will take place at Ross Bay cemetery.

All Scotch folks in Victoria will remember the Halloween concert to-night in First Presbyterian church lecture hall, Blanchard street. As published in Saturday night's issue a veritable galaxy of talented vocalists, etc., are taking part—many of them new to Victorians. Refreshments will be served at the close of the programme, consisting of shortbread, scones, oatcakes and cheese and coffee. Anyone desirous of enjoying a splendid programme of music, etc. (mainly Scotch) and a little sociability should attend the concert this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp.

SIKH CASE ADJOURNED.

Four Hindus, Charged With Stealing From Fellow Countryman, Are Remanded.

Four Sikhs sat in a row in the police court dock this morning charged with stealing $30 and a suit worth $3.50 from Bhatah Singh. The four accused are Jag Singh, Narian Singh, Bhugwan Singh and Santa Singh. Through Charles Moore, who was sworn as interpreter, they asked for a jury trial, showing their knowledge of their rights as British subjects.

The case for the prosecution not being ready an adjournment until to-morrow morning was asked for and granted. Fred Peters, K. C., who is defending the accused, asked for bail and said the charge would be found as baseless as one the court heard some months ago. The complainant and one of the accused had lived together near the mills for some time, but the latter had built himself a floating home on some logs. A dispute arose over the ownership of a stove he was taking and Bhatah Singh, with some friends, fell on him and assaulted him. A warrant was going to be taken out but was forestalled by Bhatah, securing the arrest of his fellow lodger and three others. Bail was fixed at $100 each and was put up by friends of the accused.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. T. Elliott, who has been undergoing treatment in the Royal Jubilee hospital, is now making steady progress towards recovery.

The members of the Ladies' Hockey Club met on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. D. York on Stanley avenue, ostensibly for a military 500 party, but in reality to present one of their number, Miss Muriel Nicholles, whose marriage to Mr. Frank Whyte takes place on Wednesday, with a handsome tray which held two dozen very pretty china cups and saucers.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeil Campbell, of Tolleme avenue, entertained a very jolly crowd on Halloween night. The Misses Hill and their brothers, well known for their skill in Scotch dancing, contributed a great deal to the entertainment of the guests, as did likewise Mr. Taylor, the well known Scotch vocalist. Refreshments of a "nut crack" order were served and "Auld Lang Syne" brought the evening to a close. Among those present were: Capt. Wm. Hunter, Mr. Jas. Porter, Miss Todd, the Misses Lucas, the Misses Hill and their brothers, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

RUGBY IN THE EAST.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 2.—Eight hundred people gathered at Queen's Athletic grounds on Saturday, when McGill won by 37 points to 4.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Toronto University defeated last year's champions, Ottawa College, here yesterday by 14 points to 9. Lawson and McDonald each scored a try for the varsity and Dean for Ottawa.

Toronto, Nov. 2.—The Argonauts were swamped again by the Hamilton Tigers, the score being 15 points to 9.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—By a score of 22 points to 5 the Ottawa Rough Riders defeated Montreal here in a senior inter-provincial game before a good-sized crowd.

HE IS SILENT NOW.
Once he preached it from the house-top, and he whispered it by stealth; he wrote whole miles of stuff against the awful curse of wealth. He shouted for the poor man, and he dragged the rich man down; he went for every king and queen who dared to wear a crown. He clamored for rebellion; and he said he'd head a band to exterminate the millionaires and sweep them from the land. He yelled against monopolists; their power he would deftly and vowed he'd be an anarchist and blow them to the sky. He stormed, he fumed, and ranted, till he made the rich men wince; but his uncle left him money, and he hasn't shouted since.

HON. F. OLIVER AT KAMLOOPS

SPEAKS IN BEHALF OF DUNCAN ROSS

Expounds Policy of Dominion Government and Exposes Opposition Tactics.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—Unheralded, Hon. Frank Oliver arrived in Kamloops on Thursday morning to address a meeting of the people of this city and district in the evening, but owing to some untoward circumstances, no announcement of his visit had been made. However, bills were at once printed and distributed calling the meeting, and when the chairman, J. M. Harper, called the meeting to order in the K. M. & A. A. hall there was a very good gathering assembled to hear the minister of interior. After a few introductory remarks by the chairman and Mr. Swanson, the latter taking Mr. Burrell to task for unfair methods, Mr. Oliver addressed the meeting. He pointed out the difference between the policy of the Conservative and that of the Liberal government. The former was for the benefit of the manufacturing interests in eastern Canada; the latter for the benefit of the whole of the country by the development of the west. The people of Canada had said at the elections last year that they favored the Liberal policy of development. That question is settled; the Liberals are in power and which ever way the people of Yale-Cariboo may go will not affect that fact. But the people of Yale-Cariboo now have to decide whether they favor western development. If they do they will vote for Mr. Ross; if they do not want western development then, of course, they will vote for Mr. Burrell and the government will be guided by the opinion so expressed. He pointed out that the influence of a member of parliament is measured by the vote he receives and the larger the majority given a member, the greater is his measure of influence in obtaining concessions from the government.

Dealing with the charges made by the opposition, he stated that no specific charge had ever been laid by a responsible Conservative. There had been many insinuations but no specific charge of wrongdoing. He referred to the so-called scandal attached to the department of marine and fisheries, but Hon. Mr. Brodeur, head of that department, had been returned by acclamation. Had he been a Tory and believed one little of the charges made against that department he would have ransacked Canada to find a candidate to place in opposition to Mr. Brodeur. There had been charges against the administration of timber lands and a Mr. Ames had stated that the government would not permit an investigation into them. Mr. Oliver strongly denied that and produced printed reports of an investigation held this year at which Mr. Ames was not only present but asked questions of witnesses. There were the Hodgins' charges, but after an inquiry lasting some time that gentleman had withdrawn his charges. Mr. Oliver stated that ever since the Liberal government took office the timber lands had been put up for open competition and in every case, to which there was no exception, the highest bidder had been successful. He charged the opposition with having made these alleged charges and insinuations knowing them to be false. To the credit of Canada he said the country had never before seen such a campaign as that recently waged by the Conservatives. He referred to the seed grain distribution for which nearly two million dollars worth of grain had been purchased and distributed, there being no question at any time as to a man's politics even though it was done on the eve of an election when if at any time it might be supposed such political preference might be shown, but there was no breath of suspicion to be found in connection with it.

Passing to the immigration question, especially having reference to Asiatic immigration, Mr. Oliver said that the people of Canada were developing their country to make it a good place to live in, not for aliens but for themselves. It was development for a white Canada. The Chinese were kept out by a head tax of $500, the Japanese immigration restricted by the Japanese government in accordance with an agreement made between that country and Canada, and the further influx of Hindus was prevented by the regulation requiring each man to be possessed of $200 in cash before being permitted to land.

Mr. Oliver referred to his visit to this city of a year ago, when he had come to obtain information at first hand to enable him and his colleagues to carry out their policy of western development.

HOME-MADE KIDNEY MEDICINE IS ALSO SPLENDID FOR RHEUMATISM.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to get out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent and painful and suppressed urination, and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick sediment, or white fleshy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended—highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

The various classes of land and adaptability to various purposes had to be considered and time was required. They might be moving slowly, but that was surely better than acting with untold haste and making mistakes that could not be remedied. Then there was the question of Indian reserves. It had been suggested to him that the reserve across the river should be thrown open to settlement, but owing to the claim set up by the provincial government of reversionary rights in the Indian lands, the Dominion government could neither give a title to the lands nor encourage the Indians, whose rights that government is bound to protect, to forego their lands. The province making the claim is put in the position of the complainant and the Dominion government has invited the question at law in a friendly way in order to settle the point at issue. Willing as he was to do something in this connection, the whole matter was tied up by the province.

After again urging the people of Yale-Cariboo to vote for Duncan Ross and return him by a thumping majority, Mr. Oliver resumed his seat amid applause.

Throughout his address, the minister was listened to with marked attention, his careful deliberate utterances frequently provoking bursts of applause. His argument was lucid and cogent and in dealing with the tactics of the opposition he showed them no quarter. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

HUGE TAFT PARADE IN NEW YORK CITY

Sixty Thousand Men in Procession—Suffragettes in Evidence.

New York, Nov. 2.—Darkness had fallen on Saturday night ere the tail end of the giant Republican parade, which began at 10 o'clock in the morning, filed by the reviewing stand up town and disbanded, passed into history as one of the greatest political parades ever held in this city.

Beginning as a daylight demonstration in honor of Taft and Sherman, the parade came to a close as a torchlight procession, with thousands of twinkling lights dancing above the heads of the marching men.

It took seven hours and fifteen minutes for the vast army to pass in review before the grand stand, and it is variously estimated that there were from 50,000 to 60,000 men in line, the number probably being nearer the latter figure.

The suffragettes took an uninvited part in the demonstration, when the parade passed along Fifth avenue. From an upper storey window a flock of yellow balloons, labelled "Votes for Women," were loosed over the heads of the marchers and a feminine voice shouted short speeches through a megaphone. "You vote for us, and we'll vote for Taft," was the bargain she proposed. The speaker was said to be a member of the Equality League for self-supporting women. In an effort to catch some of the balloons, the paraders rushed pell-mell about the avenue, and for a time struggled as in a football rush. The police were appealed to to arrest the offending party of women, but declined to act.

Before reviewing the parade, Judge Taft addressed an exclusively labor meeting, making a labor speech. In part he said: "Now I say that to vote for Mr. Bryan on the theory that he has no power to injure us by being president, by putting into action his peculiar economic theories, is to assume a condition that is not true."

"Then in the course of an administration of four years, a great number of business questions arise that require settlement by a man with business sense and conservative foresight, and I regret to say that Mr. Bryan in his history before this country has shown an incapacity for not recognizing a sound business principle when he meets it in the street."

RECTOR EXHIBITS SPIRIT PHOTOGRAPHS

One of His Mother Who Died
Fifty Years Ago.

Manchester, Oct. 31.—Archdeacon Colley, rector of Stockton, Warwickshire, at the close of a sermon on spiritualism, exhibited a series of what he called spirit photographs.

One of them, taken in March last outside his residence, showed the archdeacon's mother, who died fifty years ago, and his father, who died in 1891, aged 51. The mother was never photographed during life, but her likeness had been recognized by hundreds in Leamington.

In a second photograph, taken half a minute afterward, the father and mother had changed places, and the archdeacon deduces from this a double parental blessing on what he calls his anti-Saducee work.

"Seventeen years in the higher life," said the archdeacon, "appear to work for making my father in the spirit photograph look somewhat younger than in the negative I took of him three years before he departed this life."

Another print shown looked, as the archdeacon said, like a phycic fog, but in the midst of the black blotch could be clearly discerned some archaic Greek characters, and around them in ten concentric lines some miscellaneous writing which, the archdeacon said, contained a message from a friend who had been dead for twenty-five years. The Greek characters, interpreted last week by Sir Oliver Lodge, were a quotation from St. Luke, chapter 17, 4th and 5th verses, but seven words were missing.

"This photograph, or rather, psychograph, was taken," said the archdeacon, "without a camera. I went to a friend's house and took out three plates and put them into envelopes. I initiated them, sealed them, and retained possession of them in my hands, and no soul touched them. I took one plate between the palms of my hands, my friend clasped my hands and a lady placed her hands above and below his. My friend then went into a trance. In a short time he said: 'They are writing.'"

SUITS AGAINST W. R. HEARST.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Three suits for $100,000 each against W. R. Hearst, principal, and others were begun in the Superior court on Saturday by Jacob J. Kern, Democratic candidate for state's attorney for Cook county. The actions, it is claimed by the attorney filing the suits, are based on editorials, cartoons and stories printed in papers controlled by Mr. Hearst and attacking the character by Kern.

THE WAY TO WIN VICTORIA.

The people of Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, appear to take a different view from the people of Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, upon the question of cabinet representation. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Canada's Prime Minister, was elected for both Ottawa and Quebec East in the recent election. The Premier will assuredly decide to sit in the House of Commons for his old-time constituency of Quebec. Consequently in a few weeks one of the Ottawa seats will be vacant. The Ottawa Citizen, the leading Conservative newspaper at the capital and one of the leading Conservative newspapers of the East, joins with the Ottawa Free Press, a prominent Liberal newspaper, in practically urging Sir Wilfrid to ask Hon. William Templeman to remain in his cabinet and to sit as a representative of the capital. This is practically an intimation that in the event of Sir Wilfrid Laurier adopting the joint suggestion of Conservatives and Liberals there will be no opposition to the election of the Minister. Which goes to show that in some quarters in Canada representation in the cabinet is regarded as of some practical value to a constituency. Of course Premier McBride, who avers that "Templeman has done nothing for Victoria," will say this is a sordid view for the people of Ottawa to take. And Mr. McBride would be justified in offering such condemnation, because he can justly say that while his government has done absolutely nothing for Victoria, has in point of fact taken from Victoria institutions which are hers by right, his course as the head and front of the opposition to the Minister of Inland Revenue has been vindicated by the electors. The logical deduction from the result of the election is that if a public man desires to win the confidence and esteem of Victoria the thing for him to do is to hit the city, and hit it hard. The harder he strikes, the higher he will stand in public estimation.

AMBITIONS OF AN INCENDIARY.

Having "played the game" with marked success in the coast constituencies, Premier McBride has gone to the interior to continue the "game" against Duncan Ross and Smith Curtis in Yale-Cariboo and Kootenay. In the light of the conditions this provincial politician has created, it may be worth the while of the people of the province to consider whether Mr. McBride is "playing the game" in their interests or for the advancement of his own personal objects. He has succeeded in depriving the city of Victoria of representation in the government of the Dominion. Is there anything in his career or in his own individuality to warrant the people of this city in wishing Mr. McBride success in his mission? Analyzed, is it not apparent that the designs of this man are in the highest degree selfish? Is he not playing the part of a demagogue in setting the province against the Dominion and against the ultimate aspirations of the Empire in order to promote his own petty personal ambitions? That there is absolutely nothing in his claim that British Columbia has been treated unjustly by the federal government has been proven by the hand of the Auditor-General at Ottawa. The province has received vastly more in dollars and cents from the federal government than it has paid into the Dominion treasury. Probably in the heat of a political campaign the electors were in no mood to give reasonable attention to that fact. But it is mathematically true. When the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is completed and other expenditures in the province tabulated the balance will be still more in favor of the Dominion. Yet this political incendiary will repeat against Mr. Ross and Mr. Curtis his parrot cry for "better terms." On the question of Asiatic exclusion Mr. McBride is even more uncanon and insincere. Oriental immigration is not a menace to the province of British Columbia. His agents during the late election pictured ship loads of Asiatics arriving at the port of Victoria. They sent a special emissary over to Seattle to procure in one of the newspapers there the insertion of a story about the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company having entered into a contract with a Japanese labor contractor for a supply of five thousand Japanese laborers. All these things are untrue, are frankly admitted to have been apocryphal now that they have accomplished that which they were designed to do. But that was "playing the game" according to McBride standards. How long are the people of British Columbia going to tolerate this kind of political deception? Is it not time that the matter plainly—in order to forward the ambitions of one of the most dangerous incendiaries ever cast upon the surface of public life? Premier McBride is a dangerous factor in the political affairs of this province, as the people will realize sooner or later. Neither by natural attainments nor character is he fitted to be a leader of the people. He does not, nor ever can, possess the attributes of a statesman. The people of Victoria realize already that they followed his advice against their true interests. And they do not yet fully appreciate the mischief he has done.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

On Tuesday next the Republican and Democratic forces in the United States will clash in conflict. The indications are that the election will be the most interesting and most desperately fought in many years. The outstanding personality of Roosevelt will not be a factor in the fight except in an abstract sense. His great influence will of course be exercised upon behalf of Taft, the Republican nominee, because he is an exponent of "my politics." That fact is held by the at present ruling party to be a big factor in the situation. Opponents of the ruling party, however, declare it to be an element of weakness. They say Mr. Taft is merely an understudy, a factotum, of the president, and that any candidate worthy of the splendid gift of the presidency should be capable of living his own life and of thinking out and bringing into force his own policies. The Democrats further claim that Mr. Taft is not a spectacular figure; that he has never proved himself a "speller"; that he is not a sportsman; and that he appears to take no particular interest in the things which claim the attention of the multitude. To which the reply is that Mr. Taft is not a spectacular figure, he has proved himself, in a quiet way, to be one of the best executive and administrative officials the United States has ever produced. Bryan can talk by the hour, it is admitted. He has plenty of imagination, but absolutely no practical capacity and no experience. The Democratic candidate is an orator, and nothing else. His imagination runs riot and destroys confidence in his business sagacity. That is the popular estimate, as far as we can gather, of the strength and the weakness of the two men, either of whom will sit in the seat of the president for the coming four years.

There are other factors than the purely personal equation which must also have some influence in determining the result of the voting on Tuesday next. Taft has no past to live down; Bryan has. The latter has been guilty of economic indiscretions which may or may not have been lived down or talked down during the past eight years. He has also his unique record of failures rising up in judgment against him. To balance these, the times have not been prosperous in the United States of late, and the dull period is always the opportunity of the party out of power.

In the meantime no one in Canada can form any reliable estimate of the probabilities from reading the American press. The newspapers over there appear to be as confident, and quite as reckless, as the Victoria Colonist was up to Sunday morning last in respect to the prospects of Mr. Borden. According to the New York World, which claims to have made a most careful canvass, candidate Taft has 205 votes sure to candidate Bryan's 178, which leaves 100 electoral votes to be reckoned with. Taft must get 27 to be elected. New York has 39; Indiana and Ohio have 35; Indiana, Maryland, Nebraska, and West Virginia have 23. Bryan must get 64. Therefore he must get New York with 39 and 25 more or he will lose. It looks like Taft, for the New York World is supporting Bryan, and any canvass it may have made is more than likely to be favorable to the man from Nebraska.

The Toronto Mail and Empire sees in the defeat of one Minister of the Interior the defeat of one Minister of the Laurier government a distinct condemnation of the Laurier government, forgetting or overlooking the fact that nearly all the prominent members of its own party, members who would have been members of Mr. Borden's government, had his party been successful, were defeated on Monday last.

From the animadversions of the Colonist we gather that the conduct of the late political campaign in the East had been left in its hands the result might have been different, that Mr. Borden would assuredly have been triumphant. What a pity it is that so bright a talent, such eminently high qualifications for leadership, should be left blooming alone in the political desert of British Columbia. We are told that no political party can or could ever hope to win an election on a campaign of slander and vilification. But of course it is perfectly legitimate to wage a fight against a political opponent on the emancipation of speeches; to misrepresent the position of the commercial agent of Canada to Japan, to attribute statements to him he never made and which the Colonist knew he never made; to publish fake photographs of ships arriving at Victoria crowded with Orientals; to procure fake interviews with Seattle newspapers—in short, to base a campaign upon lies suggested and lies direct. The Conservative party may have fallen low and become desperate in its last of office and power, but it is at least entitled to credit for the fact that it has not generally descended to the depths sounded by the newspaper which speaks in its name in this city of Victoria.

The signs multiply, we are told, that the winter will be a hard one. These signs accumulate regularly at this season of the year. They are not invariably fallible. But there was an unmistakable portent in the political sky last Monday or five successive hard winters for the Conservative party of Canada.

To-morrow the people of the United States will decide whether Mr. Taft shall be given an opportunity to finish President Roosevelt's work.

EASTERN AND WESTERN VIEWS.

(Toronto Globe.)

The campaign of slander has utterly failed. If it had succeeded the politics of Canada would have been vitiated for a generation. If a government could be vilified out of office there would have been a temptation to make that species of tactics a constant feature of our campaigns. Nothing could be more injurious to the fair fame of Canada than to substitute for frank and fair discussion of great questions cries of scandal, personal reprobations, and oceans of slanders. There is a legitimate way of bringing suit home to a man who is guilty. It is a way for which there is ample provision in the constitution of the country and in the usages of parliament. An opposition has the power of laying "every document" before the eyes of the people. The opposition, under Mr. Borden's leadership, availed itself of this right to the full. With all the will in the world it failed to establish one major charge against the government. Notwithstanding its failure it flooded its press with the most brazen falsehoods. It flashed them from limelights, and facts that admitted of satisfactory explanation were magnified and twisted out of all semblance to their original form.

But the people were not deceived. The election returns throughout the Dominion furnish a stinging rebuke to the instigators of this shameful campaign. The electors did more than that. They decided to leave the chief slanderers at home. Bennett, Fowler, LeFurgey, Cockshutt are left at home to reflect on their ways. The men they slandered, Borden, Turfitt, Pugsley, have been returned by handsome majorities, while Mr. Brodeur was returned by acclamation.

Thus by the way, the one thing for which the Canadian people may be thankful is that a very unworthy campaign has failed. A strong government is permitted to continue its great work for the upbuilding of Canada. During this contest the country has given Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues additional incentives to earnest and faithful service on his behalf, and we feel sure that they will be sensible of that confidence and do nothing to betray or contam it.

(Winnipeg Free Press.)

The electors of Canada gave convincing proof of their intelligence by the decisive verdict of their ballots yesterday. They judged the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier upon its record of magnificent service rendered to Canada, and sustained the government by a large majority in that verdict. The new parliament—a majority broad based upon the whole Dominion, Manitoba appears to be the only province which, when the parliament is completed, will really give a majority against Sir Wilfrid Laurier; because, though the Conservatives may have the advantage in Ontario of a few seats, this, in view of the size of the representation of that province, is practically equivalent to an even break. This is a distinction for Manitoba which we do not think the better citizens of this province will entirely appreciate. The election was in many respects the most extraordinary in the history of Canada. Never before did a political party in Canada make its campaign on the single issue of slander, although there never has been an election in which that has not been one of the favorite weapons in the Conservative arsenal. The efficiency of a prolonged campaign of systematic and syndicated lying has been found out. It has been found that such a campaign does not commend itself to the judgment of the people of Canada. The campaign now over will live in Canadian history as the great slander campaign, and it is a safe prediction that it will not be repeated, at least within the next generation. The Conservative party will have to produce some reasonable alternative constructive policy; and they will doubtless set about this task upon the reassembling of parliament.

It will be a relief to the public if the parties at Ottawa cease the wranglings and recriminations of the past two sessions which were a consequence of the Conservative tactics, and devote their talents to the serious and dignified discussion of national issues.

What Other People Think

THAT MEDICAL CONGRESS.

To the Editor:—The Colonist in its second number of yesterday published the following: "World's Doctors to Meet in Vienna. The sixteenth international Medical Congress will be held at Budapest, Hungary, under the distinguished patronage of the Emperor of Austria," etc.

I can imagine the world's savants forming a procession, marching in the form of a procession, with torches from Vienna to Budapest, with torchlight bearers to light the proceedings at night.

The steamer Iroquois, which ran aground at Jack's Point, near Nanaimo, and was successfully raised and brought to this city by the B. C. Salvage Company, has been hauled out of the water. She is not badly damaged, and will soon be on the run again. The Victoria Machinery depot is repairing her engines.

MEN OVER SIXTY

DESIRE TO VOTE

Local Court of Revision Will Be Asked to Interpret Law.

During the month of October there were 1,249 applications made on behalf of householders and licenseholders for registration as municipal voters. Over three hundred names were received on Saturday. All these names will go on the list and will be considered by the court of revision on December 20th.

There are about 150 names of men over sixty, in regard to which a ruling will be asked from the court of revision. As the $2 road tax is only collectable from men between the ages of twenty and sixty, householders who have passed three-score years cannot swear to the proviso as to the payment of taxes which is meant to cover the payment of the $2 tax. The civic officials do not desire the give a ruling as to whether the law contemplates the giving of a vote to these men and will leave it to the court of revision to say.

STORMY WEATHER

DELAYS STEAMER AMUR

Brings 8,000 Cases of Salmon From North—Minor Accidentally Killed.

Steamer Amur, Capt. Locks, came into port this morning from the north and tied up at the outer dock to discharge cargo. Later she moved around to the inner harbor. She is rather late, having experienced bad weather on the trip which delayed her considerably. She experienced storms both going and coming.

The cargo of 8,000 cases of salmon was picked up at Naas, the Skeena, and other points. The steamer also brought down to Vancouver 6,000 feet of spruce which will be shipped to Liverpool on the Antioch when she leaves for that port. Thirty passengers came down, most of them from the Queen Charlotte Islands, prospectors, miners, capitalists and others.

News was also brought of the accidental death of P. Nelson, a well-known mining man of Queen Charlotte Islands. He was falling a tree which slipped back and struck him, breaking his back. He died within a few hours.

The post office department on the recommendation of Hon. W. Templeman, has opened a number of these sub offices in Victoria which have been found of very great convenience to the outlying sections.

WORSHIPPED AS A GOD.

The recent death of Cutbert Shields, the great Oriental scholar, has deprived the world of a remarkable man. He was a linguist of vast learning, and when he traveled in the East is understood to have been worshipped as a god by the natives. But he had some peculiar beliefs. He was originally known as Robert Laing, but while traveling in the East he claimed to have discovered his second ego, and his first life came to a close. He made a will leaving his property to his second self, arranged for his biography to be written, and, returning to England, took the name of Cutbert Shields. This was chosen because he was born at South Shields, England, upon St. Cutbert's Day, and also because the former contained the letters I. H. S. backwards. In his second existence Mr. Shields devoted himself to the study of Oriental witchcraft. It was his habit to give excellent dinners to a select party of friends, and afterwards to take the floor and talk of black magic until each hearer's flesh began to creep.

MR. DEAKIN'S FIRST CHANCE.

Alfred Deakin, prime minister of the commonwealth, from whom came the invitation to the British squadron under Sir Percy Scott to visit Australia after leaving the South African coast, is the son of an emigrant from Northamptonshire. He was brought up in Melbourne, and at the age of twenty-three joined, as leader-writer, the staff of the Melbourne Age, where he came in contact with David Syme, its proprietor. And it was Syme who gave Mr. Deakin his political start.

One day a delegation called on Mr. Syme, and begged him to stand as a candidate for parliament. "I have no time," Syme replied brusquely, "but I can show you a young man who will answer your purpose." He pressed a bell-button, and a couple of minutes later an office boy called young Deakin away from writing a leader. Deakin at once captured the confidence of the visitors, and in the following year he stood for West Bourke and won.

In early manhood Mr. Deakin was a prominent spiritualist, and he married the daughter of the high priest of Melbourne spiritualism. When he first emerged into political prominence he was nearly always depicted in a white sheet by the Melbourne caricaturists, and in mysterious ghostly attitudes.

An auction sale was conducted, with Frank Le Roy as auctioneer, and this created a great deal of fun. Refreshments followed, and the programme was resumed. Vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., were given by Messrs. Semple, Lewis, Le Roy, Daisell, Brown, Marsh, Larrigan, Bryce and others. A vote of thanks to the entertainers and the social committee was unanimously adopted and Aud Lang Syne brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

ANOTHER MARBLE

PROPERTY ON COAST

Local Syndicate is Developing Body on Quatsino Sound.

R. J. Flaherty is down from the west coast after spending some time as the representative of a local syndicate in developing marble properties at Tashish arm, Nootka Sound. A force of five or six men has been employed on the property with most gratifying results.

The new marble quarry, according to Mr. Flaherty, who is the discoverer of it, is well situated close to deep water. Work so far shows a large body, and the prospects are excellent for the future.

The new quarry produces white and blue marbles, and in addition to these varieties there occurs also fine bodies of veined marble which is much sought after. Samples of this kind brought down by Mr. Flaherty show a very pretty surface when polished.

Further development will be carried on at the property to test the body of marble.

—Miss Maude Underhill will give an entertainment in St. Mark's parish room, Holeskln road, to-morrow evening. The entertainment is in aid of the funds of the parish room.

GARRISON PLAYS DRAW

WITH VICTORIA WEST

Soldiers May Protest Goal Scored by Opponent's Captain.

Club's Standing.	Won.	Lost.	Draw.	Points.
Victoria West	0	1	1	1
Esquimalt	2	0	0	4
Bays	2	0	0	4
Cedar Hill	1	2	1	3
Garrison	1	2	1	3
Fifth Regiment	0	4	0	0

Victoria West, the league leaders, went as close to a defeat without actually getting there on Saturday in the match against the Garrison as they are likely to go for the rest of the season.

The match at the Royal Athletic grounds ended in a drawn game and if there was not a great amount of system and tact shown by the players the game served to show that the evenly balanced Victoria West team are not a wet weather combination. On a dry day there was never any doubt of the result against the Garrison, but with the soldiers having several pounds the better of the weight in the slush they were able to outplay the Victoria West men several times too often. On their showing they deserved a win for they led the Victoria West men throughout the afternoon, pressing them from the commencement when Buxton put the ball over the bar by a few inches. From a similar position, which the Wests failed to score, the ball was again rushed down the ground and hustled into the posts where Beany touched it aside. Several times the Garrison were almost there but failed through high shooting. Finally, however, four minutes before half time Buxton, instead of left, took the ball from a pass and cleverly shot it through. The first period ended with the Garrison pressing and the score one in their favor to nil.

The second half of the game was like the greater portion of the first half, played in rain steadily streaming down on the playing, making the ground underfoot more and more slippery as the downpour continued. The players with difficulty kept their feet and often failed in so doing at a critical moment. The Garrison with their extra weight, however, were the reader of the two teams, nearly every man being heavier and more sure on his feet than the Victoria West men, several of whom showed they had no relish for the aquatic weather.

The equalizing of the score by O'Kell was the signal for a shout of protest from the soldiers, who declared the ball shot over the bar instead of beneath it. Referee Whyte, however, held it to be a goal and in view of the Garrison protest consulted with the linesmen. The Garrison man stoutly declared the ball went over the bar, while the Victoria West man was positive he had watched the ball travel under the bar. As there was only the bar separating the two men's opinions, Whyte decided to let the matter stay as he had first given it and declared the goal scored and the tally even. In view of the fact that each side later on secured another goal the Garrison will probably protest the goal in dispute. An officer from the Garrison, who was in a position to see well, declared the ball had passed under the bar, thus supporting Whyte's decision.

From that on the Garrison were determined to add to the score and after play, which took the ball over the ground continually, they succeeded in doing so, principally through the slippery state of the ground at the west goal where Beany, in running out to protect, was not sure of his footing and made a mis-punch. The ball landed on a Garrison player, who was rushing into goal and who sent it through before Beany could again recover.

The final goal came just before the end when Victoria West were rushing matters their hardest. The ball was carried into goal with the players falling in the mud in all directions. The goal became crowded and the sudden ball was hard to lift from the ground, consequently with the press keeping round it Kroezer was able to bang it through with his hand.

The game was ended as there was no time for either side to make another attack. The first draw of the season was recorded and the Garrison showed they can play soccer in the mud. In heavy weather they will be heard from again.

Ed Whyte made a satisfactory referee and took an early stand in the game by ordering two spectators off the field for interfering with the players. The disputed goal was the only questionable thing in the play and on this Whyte is equally supported and condemned. Neither side have any fault to find with his work otherwise.

North Ward, 2; Victoria West, 1.

On Saturday afternoon the North Ward team defeated the Victoria West eleven in a second division league match at Beacon Hill by a score of two to one, after a very fast and exciting game.

Practically the same team that played the junior match played in this game, so the boys from the north end deserve great credit for their pluck.

C. Fairall tallied for the westerners, which was the only goal in the first half, but in the second half North Ward got down to work and from a corner, kicked by A. McGregor, Johnson bunted the ball through, which evened matters. It was not long before they gained the lead after some good combination by McGregor, Dakers, Taylor, Bryndolfson and Johnson, and the latter again scored.

The players from Victoria West then putted together and were bombarding the North Ward goal, but F. Sweeney and C. McCarter, at full back, were always on the spot, and their good kicking and judgment saved the game.

The whistle blew with North Ward in the lead 2 to 1.

A. McGregor and J. Dakers, played a star game on the forward line as did Taylor, Bryndolfson and Johnson, while McDonald, Sweeney and McCarter were the most prominent on the back line, and T. Menzies in goal put up a great game, for the winners. For the losers, F. Tate, C. Fairall, W. Fairall and F. Brown were the most conspicuous.

Junior League Game.

On Saturday afternoon the Beacon Hill eleven suffered defeat at the hands of the North Ward aggregation by a score of 3 to 1, in a junior league game at Beacon Hill, after a hard fought game.

In the first half Beacon Hill were shooting down hill but could not tally owing to the excellent defence work put up by Sweeney and Bryndolfson, the North Ward full backs. When the whistle blew for half time, neither side had scored.

In the second half North Ward were determined to score and after some good combination McGregor did the trick. Both teams were working hard, but North Ward had the best of play and after about five minutes' play McGregor tallied another to North Ward's credit. The Beacon Hill team then pulled together and rushed the North Ward goal which resulted in Scott beating their custodian, but it was not long before North Ward added another through Taylor.

For the winners, McGregor and Taylor were the most conspicuous on the forward line, while Sweeney, Bryndolfson, and McDonald worked hard on the back division, and for the losers, Scott, O'Rourke and Lovelidge put up a good game.

Joe Dakers gave general satisfaction as referee.

SIRET BEATS

HAYES'S TIME

RECORD MADE OVER

MARATHON COURSE

Seven Competitors Make Better Time Than American.

The Marathon race from Windsor to the Stadium promoted by the London Evening News was on Saturday, October 10th, won from 88 other competitors by Henry Siret, the young French runner, who completed the course in two hours 37 minutes 23 seconds, a time 17 minutes less than that of Dorondo and nearly 18 minutes less than that of Hayes in the great contest in July.

In addition to the $500 prize given by the Evening News, Siret on his return to Paris will receive a special award of $250 offered to the first Frenchman by the Continental Daily Mail.

At each end of the Stadium was a large number of board whereon was recorded the state of the race at various stages—five miles, ten miles, fifteen miles, twenty miles, and finally twenty-three miles, which was three miles from the Stadium. Eagerly the thousands watched the boards for the first intimation though from time to time their attention was attracted to the arena in front of them, wherein some of the world's finest athletes were fighting out various fairs.

A murmur of satisfaction went round the stands when it was seen that three British competitors were leading at the end of the first five miles—Farrow, a London man, Patrick White, of Ireland, and Crudgington, another London man. There was plenty of excitement from this time onwards.

At 4 o'clock there were 50,000 people present, all keen and anxious as to the progress of the runners. At ten miles the three British representatives were still ahead, so they were fifteen miles "I should be more comfortable if I knew where Siret was," said an expert in the grand stand. "Siret always runs quicker in the last half of a race."

There was no secret as to Siret's position a little later, for when the three leaders at the 20-mile mark were digested it was seen that Siret had worked himself into third place. White, the Irishman, was leading, and Crudgington, the Londoner, was second. At a quarter to five the figures showed that at 23 miles—only three from the Stadium—Siret was in front.

It was only a question of minutes now. Much might happen in that last three miles, following on 23 miles of strenuous effort. Frenchman, Irishman or Englishman which? That was the question. No scene could have been more dramatically arranged. Silence laid hold of the vast concourse as officials cleared the track near the entrance. A cyclist rode in. Then a tumult of applause swept the Stadium, for following a half hour leader, a sturdy figure in red and black costume. He ran with determination. Great speed was, of course, gone from him, and his action was mechanical. Twenty-six miles of running had told its tale.

As he approached the winning post White entered the Stadium, running strongly. But Siret was home now. He dashed into the tape, the winner. He caught him. Somewhere a band was crashing out the "Marseillaise." Siret, who is only twenty-one, put his hands up to his face and the tears welled from his eyes. Then the ambulance men carried him off the track amid great thunders of cheers.

White, the Irishman, soon reached the tape and had a great reception. Like Siret, he was taken off by the ambulance men. The third to arrive, a few seconds later, was an Englishman, Keywood.

The following were the first twenty-five runners:

	H. M. S.
1. Henri Siret, France	2 37 23
2. Patrick White, Ireland	2 40 15 2-6
3. J. Keywood, Bromley Com.	2 41 19 4-5
4. A. Crudgington, Bethnal Green	2 42 17 1-5
5. A. Aldridge, Earlswood	2 42 51 3-5
6. Louis Orphee, France	2 48 42
7. W. D. Butler, Bittlingbourne	2 51 23
8. W. Swan, Oxford	2 56 38 2-5
9. H. A. Lewis, Sidcup	2 57 12 2-5
10. J. Punter, Hove	2 59 11 5
11. A. Turner, West Ham	2 59 45 2-5
12. A. Johnson, Rochdale	3 0 9
13. W. Cook, Aldershot	3 0 4
14. T. Jackson, Bow	3 0 5 4-5
15. F. E. Oliver, Brighton	3 7 52 3-5
16. W. S. Thomas, Walworth	3 8 52
17. J. Wall, Sunbury Common	3 11 9
18. T. H. Heathfield, Wichester	3 11 56
19. E. Cibot, France	3 15 11 2-5
20. G. F. Easton, Battersea	3 16 23
21. C. W. Hart, Catford	3 17 12 4-5
22. T. Mitchell, Brighton	3 18 5 2-5
23. G. H. Gilbert, West Hendon	3 21 35
24. P. Dehuels, Westminster	3 22 4
25. Len Hurst, Bethnal Green	3 23 0 4-5

Hayes' time in July was 2 hours 55 minutes 18 seconds.

In the try out of new players between the Regiment and the Bays at Oak Bay on Saturday, Le Pevre, of the Regiment, broke his collarbone in the first ten minutes play of the afternoon. He will be unable to play again this season.

VANCOUVER DEFEATS

TALENT AT LADYSMITH

Island Team Fails to Score in Match at Terminal City.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—In spite of the inclement weather and the slippery condition of the ground soccer enthusiasts were entertained to a good exhibition yesterday at Recreation Park, when Vancouver defeated the crack team from Ladysmith by a score of 5 goals to nil in a coast league fixture. The game started off well, and the local team appeared cool and deliberate, and in the first three minutes waited through, doing a little double shuffle in front of goal and then scoring. The visitors of the early stages showed some of their old-time dash, Adams got away in fine style and looked dangerous, but was brought down and a free kick was awarded. Nothing resulted from it, however. Some nice pieces of play on both sides were seen repeatedly, and indications pointed to a hard struggle. Jones carried the ball well down the wing and well in centre, then passed the ball over the head of the full back, who touched it in passing, and Shawcross, who was standing in an offside position, but who was put on side by the back playing the ball, scored the second goal with a nice shot.

The defence of the visitors was going strong and Christian made a name for himself in the match. Morrison also did some fine work. Just before half time the locals again scored, Watty Robertson doing the trick and making the score 3-0.

In the first half Jimmy Adams, the Ladysmith captain, injured his knee, and went off, while Brass, another Ladysmith player, sprained his ankle and also retired. The visitors finished the first half with only nine men.

After the interval Adams came back on the field, but was not very effective, and only handled the ball a couple of times during the rest of the game. The Ladysmith boys got down to business and worked like Trojans, but the defence of the home team was a veritable stone wall. On different occasions Ladysmith had hard luck in shooting. On one occasion in particular, when one of the visitors passed McLean, the full back grabbed him by the arm and nearly spun him on his head. This was well on the penalty line, but the referee failed to see the infringement.

The strangers who recently came from Winnipeg showed to be class men, but the muddy field seemed to play havoc with their judgment. Had it been a dry day the game would have been the finest ever seen on the coast. Both teams were well matched and evenly balanced. The locals held together a little better, but with a little more experience the visitors will give them a harder run for the money. The local boys towards the end of the game were going strong. Robertson, who was the best forward, showed a condition and disposition that surprised every one. His play throughout was brilliant, as was that of the other four in the front division. The team on the whole was the most efficient ever seen on a local field. Not a weak spot was seen in the hour and a half of play. The visitors had no weak spots, either, that could be mentioned. The half back line was a "pippin." Graham was a regular whirlwind. Strang was there in every stage of the game, getting the ball away and placing it a nicely. Forrest showed up better than ever. McLean and Gunson, at full back, were there with the goods, while Horn was first class in goal.

The visitors never let up for a minute, and deserved better than a shut out. Christian was the best man in the defence. The rest played for all they knew, and did their best to get the ball in the net. But the whistle blew with Horn, the proud possessor of a clean sheet, after playing a fine game as custodian. Bradshaw, of Nanaimo, acted as referee, and gave the utmost satisfaction. The teams: Vancouver—Horn, McLean, Gunson, Forrest, Strang, Graham, Shawcross, Nanson, Robertson, Anderson, Jones, Ladysmith—Morrison, Christian, Maize, Maize, Maize, McDowell, McQuirk, Adams, Brass, Provins. Referee—Bradshaw, Nanaimo.

LADYSMITH BEATEN AT SOCCER BY SEATTLE

Puget Sound Players Have Advantage of One Goal Over Island Team.

(Special to the Times).

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—In a fast and interesting game the Seattle United soccer football team defeated the crack Ladysmith aggregation yesterday by the score of two goals to one. The players put up a remarkable game considering the muddy field. Ladysmith scored its only goal in the first half through clever work. Provis scoring in the second half the local players defended and kept the Ladysmith defence busy. Brilliant playing by Kelley, of Seattle, prevented Ladysmith scoring a second goal in the second half. Wyne, McDowell and Christian, starred for Ladysmith, while for Seattle Pearson, Cornthwaite, Allison and Adams excelled.

CANADIANS COMPLIMENTED BY LORDS ROBERTS AND DESBOROUGH.

With five of the fourteen goals scored to his credit and first class stick work in the forward lines which enabled Brennan to score twice, Alex Turnbull, of the Royals, distinguished himself on the Canadian increase team in the Olympic match, played at the Stadium in London, earning high praise from the English press, all the papers uniting in picking him as one of the first four players on the ground. At the close of the game Lord Roberts and Lord Desborough visited the Canadians' dressing quarters and shook hands with Turnbull and the other players, offering congratulations on their victory and speaking in splendid terms of the play of the western man. Lord Desborough thanked the team for coming from Canada and expressed the hope that the visit would be returned.

By way of response the Canadian team cheered the two distinguished visitors to the echo as they departed from the pavilion. The greatest good feeling was manifested among the players, many sticks being exchanged as mementos of the occasion. An account of the game follows:

Gorman began the scoring, getting one two minutes after play began. Buckland evened up for the home team immediately.

Thereafter the United Kingdom had the big share of the game, but lacked finish. Many opportunities to score from directly in front of the goal were missed. The end of the first quarter was reached with four goals to Canada, and one to the United Kingdom. The Canucks to score were Broderick, Gorman and Alex Turnbull twice.

On resuming play Buckland quickly netted for the United Kingdom. The Britons then were less flurried, and played more steadily. A fine goal game ensued, the home men playing faster on the slippery turf. Just before the interval Brennan added another for Canada. Half-time score—Canada, 6; United Kingdom, 2.

Play was faster in the second half, and closer. Both sides scored, but the home team was there oftener. With fifteen minutes yet to play each team had scored nine goals.

The Canadians settled down to work,

CALIFORNIA TEAM

BEATEN BY VANCOUVER

Visitors Captured Rugby Match at Berkeley by Three Points to Nil.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 31.—A beautiful kick from penalty by Billy Ellis gave Vancouver the only score of a brilliant match here this afternoon, the boys defeating the crack University of California team by three points to nil.

The Vancouver team played in grand form and had California going from start to finish, but the collegians were strong on the defensive and saved their goal line many times by timely kicking. The Vancouver boys made a whirlwind finish and had the California men played off their feet, holding the ball within fifteen yards of the college goal during the closing minutes of play.

In the first half California worked the ball near the Vancouver goal line and held it there for some time, but Dick Bell-Irving relieved by good kicking, while Russ Johnson and Billy Ellis were always in the game. The Vancouver boys had hard luck in the first half when they fumbled right on the college line and pressed hard all through the second half.

The only score of the match was made about the middle of the second half when Vancouver was awarded a penalty near the California goal. Billy Ellis took the kick and sent the ball sailing over the bar, amid great enthusiasm the Californians cheering the Vancouverers. From then till the finish Vancouver held California on the defensive, but failed to get the ball over the line, the game ending with the score three points to nil in favor of Vancouver.

Dick Bell-Irving played a star game at full back, his kicking being grand, while he tackled well.

Johnson, Savers, Deykin and Bryant were in fine form and were the best men on the field.

Vancouver will play Stanford, next Wednesday, and Manager Churton says that if the boys play the same kind of a game as they did against the California team they should win.

Charlie Watson is quite well and attended the game to-day. He will probably play against Stanford, next week.

HARRIERS.

Y. M. C. A. RUN.

The Y. M. C. A. harriers got away Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from the Royal Athletic ground. L. Beckwith was the pack with C. Baylis as whip. The course led across country to the exhibition grounds and after about six miles of heavy going the boys finished more or less fresh. Half a mile from home the race commenced when Baylis ran in first, with Day second. The members will have the first long distance race of the season this month.

however, and by the superb work of all the men on the team they ran the score up to fourteen while the United Kingdom team was getting ten.

Final result—Canada, 14; United Kingdom, 10.

When play was resumed at half time, the Britons immediately scored twice through Jones, after some very pretty work. The Canucks then took a great many chances, Turnbull netting the ball twice in succession. Hobbin did most of the work leading to these goals, playing a wonderful game. The game was as keen as mustard, but very clean.

Brennan shot once more for Canada, and then Brickland with remarkable speed and skill put in three for the United Kingdom in rapid succession. The third quarter ended, Canada 9, United Kingdom 7.

Excitement was great as play was begun again. The Britons seemed to be fresher than the Canadians, and put the eighth goal through Jones. In short order they netted once again, drawing level with the Canadians amid great excitement. But Paddy Brennan soon gave the Canucks the lead again. After taking a nice pass from Alex Turnbull, he scored. Two minutes later Brennan added the eleventh tally, and to make the result more sure Turnbull scored the twelfth.

Towards the end of the game the Canucks played wonderfully strong and the Britons were non-plussed. The Canadians ran rings around their opponents, and in a desperate attack scored the thirteenth score, Gorman doing the trick. Brennan repeated and sent the fourteenth and last tally into the net.

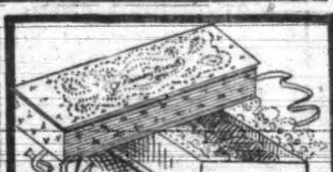

But the Britons were not defeated by any means, for they fought to the very end. They blocked many of the famous moves of the Canadians, those intricate plays of passing that have always characterized the game in Canada, but the home team seemed to out-foot the runners. It was speed that gave the Britons their last score, which made made their total tally ten. The United Kingdom team did not know much about the methods of drawing out the defence players, but simply outran their opponents to the net territory and then shot it through.

HALIBUT FISHERIES ON PACIFIC COAST

Rapid Growth of Industry—
Large Number of Men Employed.

A correspondent in the London Times contributes the following article to a recent issue of that paper:

So rapidly has the halibut fishing industry grown on the northwest coast of America that this season ten steamships and at least twenty-five sailing schooners are engaged in the trade while the industry, ashore and afloat, gives a livelihood to no less than 2,000 men. Most of the product, packed in ice, goes to rough Vancouver, B. C., and Seattle to the eastern cities of Chicago, Boston and New York. Some of the vessels, however, are bound for the English and Continental markets. Six of the steamships make Seattle their headquarters.

The last five years have seen not only the growth of the halibut fishing industry from a small beginning, but they have also seen the moving of the fishing banks further and further north, until now most of the fish are caught off the Queen Charlotte island, in Heceta straits, and off Cape Scott, at the northern end of Vancouver Island. The old fishing grounds off Cape Flattery and the southern end of Vancouver Island have been "fished out" to such an extent that only small halibut are to be obtained there, and it does not pay the fishing companies to send out their boats to that locality. This does not mean, however, that the fishing is at the point of exhaustion, for the waters of British Columbia still further to the northward carry multitudes of fish, and Southeastern Alaska has banks that cannot be exhausted for many years to come, and it may be that by the time the northern waters are depleted the southern banks will be restocked. As matters stand at present, one of the principal items in the cost of halibut fishing is that of transportation. Steam vessels require at least three days to reach the banks and three days to return. With four days of fishing this means a ten days' trip. The smaller vessels, even equipped with gasoline engines, as most of them are, take a good deal longer, and the problem of handling and caring for the fish has become serious. However, halibut this year, according to big shippers of fish, are in better condition than ever before, because the fishing boats are better equipped, and the men engaged in the industry are learning the most improved methods of caring for the catch.

Shipments of halibut over the northern transcontinental railways reach fifteen cars a week. This continues throughout the year, for there is no closed halibut season. Fishermen drop their hooks every month in the year, and the demand for halibut is nearly uniform during summer and winter. This trade annually means a train of halibut filled cars six miles long, worth nearly $1,000,000. These figures, of course, do not take into consideration the local demand, which is heavy. In Seattle the fish is worth from four to six cents a pound. Prices have been forced down by the number of concerns engaged in the trade, and the constantly increasing fleet of boats that sail for the banks. The steamship Chicago is the largest vessel in the halibut trade. She is owned by the Chicago Fish Company, which operates another steamship also. The San Juan Company has two vessels, as also has the International Fisheries Company. The New England Fish Company, the largest concern of the kind on the coast, operates from Vancouver, and has four good sized boats in the traffic. The company is building a large cold storage plant at Ketchikan, Alaska, where a part of its catch will be frozen before it is transported to the lower coast.

A new departure is the installing of wireless telegraph apparatus on the halibut boats. With this means of communication with the vessels that are out, the offices of the owning company are kept in touch constantly with the movements of the boats, and are informed of the size of the catch, the weather, the stores, fuel, etc., required for the next trip and other information. This means the saving of time at the home port, and great advantage, perhaps, in marketing the cargo.

TOWED 5,000 MILES.

A remarkable towing feat was completed recently by the arrival at Liverpool of the tug Sarah Joella with the four-masted sailing vessel Galgate, from Rio de Janeiro.

When only a few weeks out from Cardiff, which she left with a cargo of coal for South America, the Galgate encountered terrific weather, which continued until she had rounded Cape Horn. Her rigging and steering gear were so severely damaged that she was partially disabled, and as nothing was heard of her for five weeks it was feared that she was lost. She reached Rio on June 15th, in a battered condition, and her cargo was discharged there. As she could not return home under canvas a special tug was sent to tow her to the Mersey; and after a voyage of about five thousand miles, occupying forty days, during which a great deal of heavy weather was experienced, the tug and her "tow" arrived safely in port.

ANTIOCHUS BRINGS VALUABLE CARGO

Liner Had Difficulty in Finding Entrance to Straits.

The steamer Antiochus, of the Blue Funnel line, had a hard time finding the entrance to the straits yesterday owing to the thick rain, being delayed something like 24 hours on account of the extremely dirty weather. The wind was blowing on shore, and the captain knew he was not far from land. Suddenly he picked up the whistling buoy off Owen Point at Port San Juan, and knew then that he was less than a mile from shore, and with a strong gale blowing. It did not take long to put about and give a greater leeway to the ship.

The steamer carried a large amount of cargo and 38 Chinese passengers, of whom nine were subject to duty. There were no white passengers.

Of the cargo 700 tons will be unloaded here, between 3,000 and 4,000 tons for Vancouver, 3,000 for Tacoma, and 1,800 for Seattle. The silk, of which the steamer carried 667 bales, valued at $500 a bale, will be unloaded at Tacoma this evening in time to catch the express to the East.

The Antiochus met the United States fleet twice in the East—once at Manila and later at Yokohama. At the former port the sailors of the battleships were not allowed to go ashore on account of the prevalence of cholera. The officers of the ship, however, say that the disease is nothing like as bad as it was, and is fast being got under control.

When entering Yokohama the Antiochus was delayed a good deal by the fleet. The long line of ships seemed to be always in the way.

The freight for Victoria will not be unloaded until the steamer returns from the Sound.

The Antiochus is just too late to escape the advanced freight rates on the transcontinental railways. It is estimated that on the cargo brought by this liner alone the increase will be in the neighborhood of $8,000.

GLENER BROKE

WAY THROUGH ICE

No More Steamer Communication With Atlin This Year.

The unusually early and severe cold weather of the last five days has abruptly terminated navigation between Atlin and Carcross. The W. P. & Y. R. steamer Glenier, which left Atlin on the 25th, met a heavy field of ice near Ten Mile Point on her outward trip and was obliged to break her way through three miles of it from two to four inches in thickness near that point. She succeeded in reaching Carcross Wednesday evening, and on the following day attempted to make a return trip to Atlin. She again encountered very heavy ice, and after many vain efforts to force her way through the floes, she was compelled to abandon the trip and return to Carcross, where she is now laid up for the winter. This has left a large number of "last boats" still in Atlin, and it is estimated that from thirty to fifty persons, who had carried on their season's work up to the very last moment and were waiting now for the final trip of the Glenier, will now have to mope in the town. The prolonged cold wave will probably cause the closing down of several mining operations which otherwise might have had another month's run.

Messrs. Dixon and Schulz, the contractors, will open the winter mail service via Carcross this week. Semi-weekly trips will be made throughout the winter months.

NEW GERMAN LINER.

Twenty-Seven Thousand Ton Vessel Takes the Water at Bremen.

Bremen, Nov. 2.—The North German Lloyd Company's new steamship George Washington, was successfully launched on Saturday in the presence of the largest crowd that ever witnessed an event of the kind at the local shipyards. The American ambassador, David Jayne Hill, officiated at the christening ceremonies and afterwards delivered an address at the luncheon given by the North German Lloyd officials.

The George Washington has the distinction of being the largest German steamship ever built. She is 777 feet long and her tonnage will be 27,000. She will be the first of the North German Lloyd liners with a provision for an additional third deck to accommodate those passengers of small means who find the price for second cabin accommodations too high, and yet who do not wish to travel in the steerage.

The commission to investigate the collision between the Amur and Vado, consisting of Commander Spain, commissioner of works, with Capt. Musgrave in charge of the Hydrographic survey, and Capt. Walbran, of the Marine department, as assessors, is holding the first session this afternoon.

E. Taylor, chief steward of the steamer Portland from Northern ports to Seattle, communicated with Stephen Jones, proprietor of the Dominion hotel, yesterday at 5 o'clock by wireless. Jones told Taylor that a party bound for Seattle with 100 passengers from northern ports aboard. All well, good trip down.

INVERCLYDE TO LOAD LUMBER AT CHEMAINUS

Fatal Accident on Board Barque While Lying at Santos.

The British barque Inverclyde is to carry lumber from Chemainus to South Africa, the destination being Lorenzo Marques, on Delagoa Bay. The lumber is all cut ready for her, but so far Captain King, her skipper, has not received his orders from the owners. It is altogether probable that this word will be received to-day, and she will then proceed at once to the wharf. Captain King, speaking of his trip, said that when attempting to round the Horn he was blown far out into the South Atlantic, so far that it did not seem worth while to again beat back. Accordingly he gave the barque her way and sailed in the other direction. By so doing he estimates that he arrived here much more quickly than he would have done had he persisted in taking the South American route.

A rather interesting fact in regard to the voyages of the Inverclyde is that her captain has "experienced" nothing but winter since he was here two years ago. As the seasons changed he crossed and recrossed the line. Whether he will get away from this hemisphere in time to catch a bit of the summer on the side is very doubtful, although the captain hopes to do so.

Speaking of his stay in Santos, Capt. King tells of an accident which happened on board his ship, the result of which proved fatal. The crew were bathing in the harbor at Santos when the cook, who claimed to be an expert high diver, set out to give a display of his prowess to the other members of the crew. At first he went about half way up the rigging and made the dive successfully. Again he mounted the rigging, going this time to the mast head. This time he did not make enough allowance for the distance of the masthead from the rails of the ship. Instead of diving into the water he struck his head on the ship's rail and was killed instantly.

Santos, the captain describes as a health resort, although only a few years ago it was the plague spot of the Brazilian coast. The city, a growing one, has so improved its sanitary arrangements that yellow fever has been practically abolished. The arrangements for handling shipping is also of the most up to date character. His barque being unloaded in five days, work which he said would take at least two weeks on this coast.

The steamer Umatilla from San Francisco arrived in port this morning about half past three, landed between twenty and thirty passengers and a little less than one hundred tons of freight, and cleared again for the Sound. The freight was of a general character with the exception of a consignment of household goods for Dr. F. N. Steen. The following are the saloon passengers who debarked here: J. R. Cook, B. Hill, Mrs. C. E. Stoddard, Mrs. M. G. Wade, Miss R. Halliday, E. P. Thomas and wife, H. Shipp, P. A. Schweb, E. G. Schweb, A. Jarvis, W. G. Young, A. J. Young, A. W. Turner.

FIRE BREAKS OUT ON STEAMER MANUKA

Australian Liner Put Into Dunedin, Where Flames
Were Extinguished.

According to a cable received at San Francisco by the Merchants' Exchange from London, the Australian liner Manuka has put in to Dunedin, New Zealand, on fire.

The Manuka left Victoria for Sydney on September 1st, with a large cargo and a full passenger list. It was her last trip on the route until next summer and when the fire occurred she was probably on the way to Auckland from Sydney. On arrival at Dunedin the fire was got under and it was found the damage was very slight.

The Aurangi will sail for Sydney on Friday next and among her passengers will be a number of followers of the fight game, who are going down to see the Burns-Johnson fight on December 1st. The Aurangi gets to Sydney on that date and calls at Brisbane two days earlier, on November 25th, and by leaving the boat there and taking train the sportsmen calculated to be in Sydney a day before the fight.

Steamer Lonsdale, which left on Saturday night for Mexico, took from that port 10 tons of potatoes, 20 tons of box shoals, and 10 tons of pig lead. She also had a big consignment of coal.

A first class glove cutter can earn as much as $50 a week in Paris.

GIRLS ATTACK MEN WHO SAW THEIR "JINKS"

Intruders Chased Onto Roof-top and Finally Captured by Police.

Reno, Nov. 2.—Having invaded a sorority party at which only women were admitted, five male students of Nevada university, K. E. Johnston, A. Hopkinson, Ralph Dignowity, C. G. Chappin and Lyle Selby, were captured by police after an exciting chase on Friday night.

At the party, the annual "jinks" given by the Theta Epsilon sorority, some of the young women were dressed in male attire, others in fantastic garb, and all in costumes that were not meant for male eyes.

Just when the fun was at its height the intruders were discovered. In the pandemonium that followed Dignowity was scalded with a pot of boiling water. Others had their clothes ruined with milk and punch thrown by the girls. Police who were guarding the entrance to the hall were called and took after the intruders. After a wild fight the students reached the gallery and climbed into the rafters. When the police secured ladders the students broke through the skylight, slid down the roof and dropped some 15 feet to the ground, only to be captured by extra police, who had been summoned. One man alone escaped.

The five captured were taken to the police station and their names registered. Punishment will be left to the university faculty. It is expected five suspensions will follow.

FEAR OF RABIES DRIVES GIRL INSANE

Was Bitten by Woman Afterwards Reported to Be Mad.

New York, Oct. 31.—Miss Dora Klappin became a raving maniac of the rabies type from worry caused by the conviction that she had hydrophobia.

Mrs. Thaler, a neighbor of the Klappins, 41 years old, living in the same house, suddenly went insane on July 6th last. The women in the house did what they could to soothe her and tenderly nursed her.

That day Miss Klappin took a glass of milk to her. As she extended the glass Mrs. Thaler, in a frenzy, sprang at her and bit her savagely on the left cheek. Mrs. Thaler was taken to Bellevue's psychopathic ward and from there to the insane asylum at Islip, L. I., where she died July 14th.

The wound on Miss Klappin's cheek soon healed, for she was strong and healthy. She forgot all about it except occasionally to express pity for "poor Mrs. Thaler."

Some time after Mrs. Thaler's death the report spread and grew on East One Hundred and Twenty-first street she had died of hydrophobia; that a dog had bitten her.

Miss Klappin heard the rumor oft repeated. A "hydrophobia scare" was prevalent then. The girl read of dogs with rabies chasing children, of persons dying in the throes of hydrophobia. She began to worry about herself. Her fears grew gradually but surely, until they reached their climax, or rather her mind was lost in their depth. She fell into hydrophobia convulsions, frothed at the mouth and raved that dogs were springing at her.

The tortured girl was taken to the Harlem hospital, and from there to psychopathic ward at Bellevue that her undoubted lunacy might be verified there. And there Dr. Gregory was informed that "pseudo-hydrophobia," as the wise physicians call it, had driven her mad.

CUNNING FRENCHMAN.

In Spain the station-master signals the departure of a train by ringing a small bell. The other day the passengers in a train travelling through Andalusia were "held up" for a quarter of an hour because the station-master had lost his bell, and refused to allow the train to depart without the usual signal. Presently a Frenchman strolled leisurely up to the station, climbed into a compartment, and the train departed. It appeared that when he reached the station earlier in the day he found that he must return to the station adjacent to make a purchase. Left the train should leave without him, he stole the bell.—L'Opinion, Paris.

COL. WOLFENDEN IS AGAIN AT HIS POST

King's Printer Has Returned From Six Months' Visit in Old Land.

Col. R. Wolfenden, King's printer for the province, reached home on Saturday after spending six months' absence in the old land. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wolfenden. A good part of the time was spent in his native town of Kirkby Lonsdale, Westmoreland, with visits to the greater centres.

The large cities have changed a great deal since the colonel last visited the old land, but he found the smaller towns little altered from what they were many years ago.

His numerous relatives in the old land were visited by him. That, of course, occupied a good part of the time of his visit and left shorter time in which to cover other points.

Col. Wolfenden feels much improved in health as a result of his trip. He had delightful weather for both sea voyages.

On the return trip he was a passenger on the Empress of Britain when she lowered the record for Atlantic voyages. On the way home he visited at Ashcroft and other points.

This morning Col. Wolfenden again entered upon his duties at the head of the government printing office.

"THE TIME, THE PLACE AND THE GIRL" HERE

Bright Play to Be Presented at Victoria Theatre
To-night.

"The Time, the Place and the Girl," which comes to the Victoria Theatre to-night, with John E. Young in the principal part, has created many unique and extraordinary records during the two years Mr. Young has been playing it, but one of the most remarkable was made in Ogden, Utah, the other day.

Last season "The Time, the Place and the Girl" played there on a Saturday night to receipts of $1,075. The audience was most enthusiastic and as Sunday night was open for both company and theatre, it was decided during the performance to play again that night. Nine hundred and eighty-two dollars were the receipts, and while the Sunday performance was in progress, a telegram was received stating that the opera house in which the company was to appear Monday night was then burning and a performance would be impossible. Announcement of this was made to the audience and a third Ogden performance arranged for Monday night. The receipts were $754.

This in itself constituted a most wonderful record for a small one-night stand, and when this year it was found that the company was booked to appear there on the same night as Buffalo Bill's Wild West, it was feared the receipts would be small indeed, and efforts were made to change the date. Henry Askin, the general manager of the Askin-Singer Co., refused to do so, however, and his judgment was justified, for the company played to exactly $1,113.

CONCERT AND PLAY.

Entertainment at Duncan Proves Enjoyable Affair.

(Special Correspondence.)

Duncan, Oct. 31.—Wednesday evening saw a great gathering at the Duncan opera house, the occasion being a concert and play in aid of the funds of the Cowichan Athletic Club.

The concert took place first and was most successful. Mrs. Prevost was an able accompanist, and each number was enthusiastically received. Miss Freda Prevost sang two songs in a charming manner. Mr. Bainbridge's song was also most ably rendered. Dr. Dykes and Mr. Johnson sang the duet "Excelsior," which was enthusiastically encored, and responded with a duet. Mr. Scott, accompanied by Miss Scott, sang two comic songs in his usual happy manner. The first, "The Party at the Zoo," was capital, but the encore, "When Father Laid the Carpet on the Stairs," was even more appreciated.

The play which followed was one of the most successful which has been given here, and it is very difficult, when all acquitted themselves so well, to make any special mention.

Miss Miles as Mrs. Whiffles was capital in a very difficult part. Mr. Chuko as Mr. Whiffles not only acted well but looked the part to perfection. John Brownjohn, impersonated by A. Lane, was excellent, and contributed very largely to the success of the play. Mrs. Byng-Hall impersonated Lydia Whiffles most charmingly. W. Morten as Cousin Phibbs acted throughout in an easy and natural manner.

daughter, left yesterday for Vancouver, en route for St. Thomas, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson leave soon on an extended trip to the old country. They will sail from Montreal.

Among visitors to the city are Major and Miss Henneage, and Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Murchell, of Thetis Island.

Mr. Heald, game inspector, left yesterday with his family for Alberni, where he will make his home in the future.

ed from the mainland, where she has been spending five weeks visiting friends.

Frank C. Reid, of Pasadena, who is visiting Victoria, is registered at the guests at the Dallas hotel here, have gone to Japan. Mr. Baden-Powell is a brother of the South African hero.

W. W. B. McInnes was in the city on Saturday, spending only a few hours here. He does not feel in the least discouraged by results in Vancouver, but states that the province at large has lost heavily by the defeat of Hon. W.
Templeman. The loss of a cabinet minister is, he thinks, to be deplored more than any other defeat in the province.

Mrs. H. C. Brewster entertained a large party of young people on Saturday night to celebrate the birthday of her son, Master Roy. Refreshments were served, all sorts of merry Halloween games were played, and a very jolly time spent, the only unpleasant feature, from the children's standpoint being that they had to go home too soon.

Miss Colbert, of Stanley avenue, assisted by her friend, Miss Carmichael, was the hostess of a very jolly Halloween party for about a dozen little folks on Saturday. All sorts of merry games were played and the supper table was decorated with Jack o'lanterns and refreshments served in regular Halloween style, which was much appreciated by the young folks. Among those present were: Martha Macdonald, Aggie Kathleen, Roy and Archie Jones, Elsie Dodge, Arthur Vivian,
Adeline Colbert and others.

Sir James Douglas

At a time like the present when men and women are tumbling over one another in a breathless endeavor to be "brilliant" and "clever" there is something distinctly refreshing in the history of a life of Sir James Douglas, and some, simplicity with which R. H.
Coates and R. E. Gossell have applied themselves conscientiously and diligently, to the task of writing a history of the life of Sir James Douglas, and interwoven with it and part and parcel of it, the history of the province of British Columbia, and inextricably interwoven with this again the history of that greatest of all companies, the Hudson Bay.

The first chapters of the book are taken up in showing briefly but clearly the steps by which the Pacific coast first became known to the world, and how the overland explorer completed the work of the navigator.

Then came the fur trader, and his trafficking with the Indians was the first act of commerce in the great interior.

Our interest in the fur trade is for the fruits it bore in subsequent history.
We watch its huge and tireless mechanism as in measured progress: James Douglas, the most notable figure which it produced in the country west of the Rocky mountains, rose step by step to the post of chief command, thence, by the inevitable sequence of events, the company gave place to civil government, to become the first representative of the crown in a British colony on the Pacific coast.

James Douglas was born at Demerara, British Guiana, August 15th, 1803.
His father was a descendant of the Earl of Angus, the "Black Douglas" of Scottish history. The boy, whose name was to go down in history, was sent at an early age to Scotland to be educated, and was fortunate in having for a tutor an exiled French nobleman who was the means of furnishing him with a

British subjects, in the territory owned by Great Britain north and west of Canada and the United States, was reserved for a period of twenty-one years, but immigrants were pouring into Oregon, and towns were springing into being, and industry was expanding with a speed that was full of meaning to the overworked population of Great Britain. From the company's standpoint the moment was an anxious one,
and concessions must be obtained if the monopoly was to be saved with any semblance of its old-time power. After protracted negotiations with the mother country, a grant was consummated on January 13th, 1846, by which Vancouver Island, with the royalties of its seas and mines, was handed over to the Hudson's Bay Company, in perpetuity, subject only to the domination of the crown, and to a rental of seven shillings, payable on the first day of each year. The company, by return, was to settle a colony of British subjects within five years; to sell the land at a reasonable price, retaining only ten per cent. of the proceeds, and applying the balance to improvements; to receive such lands as might be necessary for naval stations and government establishments; to report every two years with regard to the number of colonists settled and the acreage of lands sold; and to develop the resources of the coast and industrial establishments, except during hostilities between Great Britain and a foreign power.

The wisdom of the grant was widely questioned. Undoubtedly the desire of the company was to control rather than to promote the settlement of the coast.
Colonization was incompatible with the fur trade, and only a few who were rich enough could pay the price for land which was a pound per acre, and furthermore, for every hundred acres purchased, the buyer was to convey at his own expense, three families in six single settlements to the colony.

From the outset, open quarrels were inevitable between the settlers and the company, and fear of the Indians pressed constantly.

Victoria was laid out in streets in 1862, though where the city now stands was still forest with only occasional springs of cultivated ground. In addition to the fort, only twelve houses stood within the surveyed limits.

In 1861 upon the departure of the cruelly treated governor, Blanchard, who had been chosen to represent the crown, but had not been allowed either salary or official residence, James Douglas was appointed governor of Vancouver Island, and a man more competent it would have been impossible to find. His knowledge of the country was unrivalled, his control of the officials and servants of the company absolute, and his influence with the Indians, whose goodwill was essential, almost unlimited.

From 1861 until 1868 Douglas reigned as governor of Vancouver Island, and his position was that of an almost undisputed sovereign. Crown and company were virtually one, both having their centre in the governor.

Upon the discovery of gold in the Fraser and Thompson rivers, Douglas caused the miners to pay a tribute of 10s. a month at first, which he afterwards raised to 21s. The result of this policy was to bring the miners one and all to Victoria as the starting point for the new diggings. Owing to transportation difficulties frequent stays in Victoria were necessary, and from a hamlet clustered about a Hudson's Bay trading post, Victoria sprang suddenly into a city, and it has been estimated that between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand persons passed through its portals on their way to the gold diggings. Buildings to the number of two hundred and upward arose in six weeks, and food rose to famine prices. Lumber brought $100 a thousand feet, and town lots sold at $1,000 per foot frontage. Victoria became immediately the most important shipping centre of the coast, and its docks were crowded with merchandise.

In the autumn of 1868 Douglas made a tour of the mainland towns and colonies, and was impressed with the necessity of securing an agricultural population for the permanent building up of the best interests of the country, and wrote to England asking for funds to construct roads, and in other ways make the country habitable, but those to whom he applied failed to see the necessity of sending funds to a country

MOUNTED RIFLE

CORPS INSPECTED

Col. Holmes Compliments Men of Newly Organized Squadron at Kamloops.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—The inspection of the C. M. R. took place on Tuesday afternoon in rather cool weather, on the flat east of the K. M. & A. A. recreation enclosure. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the men paraded in front of the drill hall, under the command of Capt. Johnson and Lieut. Drummond. Considering the fact that the men were mounted on strange horses unaccustomed alike to drill and riders, they formed up in quick time and made their way to the inspection ground, where, pending the arrival of Col. Holmes, D. O. C., they went through various manoeuvres in this style. At 3:30 the inspecting officer appeared, and after the general salute the men were subjected to a thorough inspection. The march past followed after which the squadron went through a number of evolutions under the direction of their officers.

At the close of the inspection the colonel expressed the satisfaction he felt regarding the appearance the men presented in so short a time after organization. He had not expected so large a turnout. In addition to the number (about sixty) each man was well mounted and well dressed in the uniform of his squadron. This was most satisfactory and compared favorably with other inspections of newly formed corps.

In the evening the C. M. R. held its first dance in the drill hall. Needless to say, the boys in scarlet were there in full force; nor were the Rocky Mountain Rangers by any means unrepresented, a large contingent of these being present.

The newly mounted rifles are to have a fine new armoury building all to themselves, according to Col. Holmes. Col. Holmes says that the present drill hall is not large enough for the two local corps.

CELEBRATE FOUNDING CHURCH.

Methodist of Kamloops Hold Special Services to Mark Twentieth Anniversary.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—It falls to the lot of few churches in this young western land to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its founding, still the Kamloops church must be numbered amongst this chosen few. On Sunday the milestone marking the close of the second decade was passed. The services were held in the church, and the day was one that will mark a bright epoch in the history of the congregation.

The speaker of the day was Rev. Dr. Sippel, president of the Columbian College, New Westminster. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Dickenson, assisted in the services, which were brightened by special music by the choir.

On Monday evening a congregational gathering was held. The church has recently undergone renovation and repairs, and the expense involved in this work amounting to upwards of $200 was raised by the congregation in a special offering.

The gift of a beautiful carved oak pulpit by one of the members of the congregation was one of the pleasing features of the anniversary.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.
Young Scotchman Shoots Himself While Cleaning Revolver.

Kamloops, Oct. 31.—An unfortunate accident happened at the Queen's hotel Tuesday night, resulting in the death early on the following morning, of Andrew Somerville, aged 22 years.

The unfortunate young man was cleaning a revolver and appears to have been unaware that the weapon was loaded. In some way the gun was discharged, the bullet entering the body in the region of the heart, on being admitted to the hospital he made a statement of how the accident occurred, but was too weak to talk much.

Somerville is stated to have come to this country from Scotland about four years ago. Nearly twelve months ago he met with a serious accident which kept him in the hospital for a considerable time, his leg having received severe injuries.

LOST HIS NERVE
A STRONG MAN ALMOST DIED, GREW THIN, WEAK AND NERVOUS.

A Remarkable Discovery.
"Until three years ago I was the picture of health—then I became what people call Neurasthenic. I grew sleepless, worried, looked ill, felt nervous, physical fatigue, experienced fears and felt always in danger of something unknown. All the time I grew thinner and weaker, felt so nervous that I felt the end must be near. No medicine helped, each one seemed a new disappointment. Then my doctor suggested 'Ferrozone'—it was a fortunate choice because I improved at once. I gained weight, enjoyed my meals, got a better color, forgot my nervous fears. The way Ferrozone built me up is surprising. I made a new man of me and now I look good for twenty years to come."

CASSIAR DISTRICT IS

SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE

Phil Oberlander, Noted Bohemian Hunter, Secures Many Trophies.

Vancouver, Oct. 31.—Phil Oberlander, the noted Bohemian big game hunter, returned yesterday from an extended hunt in the Cassiar district at the headwaters of the Stikine river. Mr. Oberlander spent some time in the North and as a result of his trip brought down a big string of trophies. He was accompanied by James Tate, of Spence's bridge, and Denis, an Indian guide, and states that the Cassiar district is the best hunting region in America and that all hunters who have visited that part of the country this year had very good success.

"The return trip from Stikine river was a little expensive," said Mr. Oberlander. "For this little journey in a canoe handled by an Indian I paid $520, but that was a trifle compared with the alternative of having to spend the winter at Telegraph creek."

Figures compiled by Mr. Oberlander show that 12 goats, 28 sheep, 25 caribou, 10 moose and 5 grizzlies were slain this autumn by visitors hailing from Canada, United States, England, Germany and Austria.

On the down trip Mr. Oberlander was accompanied by Count Charles Hoyos, an ex-officer of a crack Austrian regiment. At Wrangle the also met the Count's younger brother, Count Ernest, who had been shooting in the Yukon. The latter secured three caribou, one sheep and one grizzly.

The best all-round bag, including a 60-lb. moose, was secured by Count Hoyos; the largest sheep, 41½ inches, by Mr. Fleischman; the second best sheep, 42½ inches, as well as the largest moose and largest caribou of the season, were shot by Mr. Oberlander; the second largest caribou and best grizzly by Mr. Millais.

Mr. Oberlander will forward his trophies to his Bohemian castle.

HAS CLOSE CALL.

Vancouver Man Is Almost Asphyxiated in His Office.

Vancouver, Oct. 31.—Henry Flanders, manager of the local branch of the Golden Gate Yeast Company, was found lying unconscious on the floor of his office on Pendray street by his friends. Volumes of deadly coal gas were pouring into the room from a disconnected hose of the gas stove, and Mr. Flanders was almost dead by the time that the neighbors battered in the door. He was taken to the general hospital and remained in a comatose condition for several hours, and it was at first thought that he would not recover from the effects of inhaling the gas, but the doctors at the hospital stated that he was doing well last evening and was out of danger.

Burton, two young men, charged with highway robbery and assaulting Alfred Taft, appeared before Magistrate Williams yesterday morning in the police court and were committed for trial. BIG ZINC SHIPMENT

FROM SANDON MINE

Week's Production in Properities in S. E. British Columbia.

Nelson, Nov. 2.—A noteworthy feature of the ore shipments for the past week is the inclusion of a considerable tonnage of zinc from the Whitewater mine near Sandon. The Whitewater is also shipping lead ore to Trail. The total zinc shipments now amount to over 4,000 tons, a larger figure than has been attained in any one year. Of this all but 3,000 tons have gone to Oklahoma, the remainder having been shipped to Antwerp, 98 tons going forward to-day from Nelson. With the shipments of lead and zinc taken together with the exception of the St. Eugene the Whitewater has this year shown itself to be the best shipper in Kootenay among the lead-silver-zinc properties. The Silver Hunter is shipping silver, and there are several other mines which have started work. The total shipments for the year are now very close to a million and a half tons. Twelve years ago the total shipments were under 200,000 tons.

WESTMINSTER'S CIVIC CONTEST.

Three Members of Present Council Will Not Offer Themselves for Re-election.

New Westminster, Oct. 31.—At least three members of the present city council have decided not to offer themselves for re-election when nominations are called for on Monday, the 7th of December. Those who have definitely decided to drop out are Ald. Shiles, Hentley and Fader. All the others, with the exception of Ald. Jardine, have stated that they will be in the field if the citizens wish them to serve on the council board during the coming year.

When questioned some time ago as to his intentions, Ald. Jardine said he did not care to commit himself so early in the season. It was learned indirectly, however, that Ald. Jardine is not adverse to serving another year as alderman, or even to accepting the nomination for the mayoralty.

Regarding the prospects of a contest for the chief magistracy of the city, it is rumored that Mayor Keary will again be a candidate and that he will be opposed by Judge Bole. Ald. Johnston was also rated as a probability, but he says that, although he had been asked by many to enter the mayoralty field, he had practically given up the idea for this year.

SECTIONMAN HURT.

New Westminster, Nov. 1.—W. Alcock, a section man employed by the B. C. E. Railway Company on the cutting of a new grade beyond Collingwood, was injured by a landslide at that point yesterday, sustaining injuries on various parts of the body. He was brought to this city and removed to the Royal Columbian hospital, where he will remain for some days.

CHINESE MURDERER

SENTENCED TO DEATH

Lee Chung Will Be Executed at New Westminster on December 18th.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—The second death sentence of the present assize was pronounced by Mr. Justice Clement yesterday afternoon, when he sentenced Lee Chung to be hanged on December 18th for the murder of Yung Hing, in South Vancouver, in July last. The jury empathized in the case returned their verdict of guilty after an absence of two hours.

After ordering the prisoner to stand up, Mr. Justice Clement asked: "Have you anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed upon you?"

The question being conveyed to the prisoner by Court Interpreter David Low, he replied through the same medium: "The sentence of death should not be passed upon me. I am not guilty of killing Yung Hing. Two or three men had quarrels with him a day or two before that."

The judge replied that the jury had found him guilty, and nothing remained but to pass the sentence of the law upon him. He then sentenced him to death.

His sentence means that there will be three hangings in New Westminster on the same date, the trio being composed of two negroes and a Chinaman. Portella was first sentenced in Vancouver for the murder of Mrs. Jenkins on Prior street; a few days later the mulatto Jenkins was sentenced in New Westminster for the murder of Mrs. Morrison at Hazelmore.

MINING ACTIVITY AT McCONNELL CREEK

Grand Trunk Pacific Surveyors.
Will Work All Winter About Hazelton.

While there has been a continuous stream of people going in and out of the Hazelton district all through the summer and autumn, there has been work for all during that time. Is the word brought by E. J. Branford, who arrived in the city last night and registered at the Dominion hotel. The work during the summer lay principally on the surveys, while the district was fairly busy with prospectors locating claims or doing assessment work on claims already staked. At McConnell creek is the principal activity where, says Mr. Branford, the surface showings have been good, while bedrock has been struck at 83 feet below the surface. The claims along the creek have been showing up satisfactorily, and the miners have now combined in development work of one section of the properties where they will test the ground to depth thoroughly.

Mr. Branford says there are two survey parties of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway working at present, and will be engaged through the winter on this work. The district, he says, is now prosperous, and people have been flocking in during the summer. The only difficulty met with was the summer frost which occurred each month with surprising regularity. In spite of that drawback, however, the ranching has been good and considerable land is held with a view to sales being effected as soon as the railway is completed.

The G. T. P. surveyors have been working all summer and have employed a large number of men on the work.
As far as the could ascertain during his stay there, Mr. Branford says the season has been very satisfactory, work plentiful, and holds out good prospects for the future.

BANK TELLER MAKES LOVE TO FIVE GIRLS

Marries One and is Now Defendant in Breach of Promise Suit.

Dixon, Ill., Oct. 31.—Five young women, all of them prominent socially here, looked wistfully at Arthur R.
Buzzell, teller in the state bank, when he appeared in court to defend a breach of promise suit for $10,000 which Miss Neeloe Garner, 20 years old, of Leaf river, began against him. All five had stories to tell of Buzzell's ability as a wooer. It appeared from their statements that until he married one of the young women Buzzell spent his evenings making love to them. He showed up in regular cycles of five days, having spent each evening in the home of a different girl.

Once in every five days, Miss Garner testified, Buzzell sat with her in the parlor of her home and told her how anxious he was to make her his wife.
In the next four days, she would receive burning love letters from him.
Some of them thirty-six pages long.
On the fifth day after he would appear again and pass the evening with her.
Six months Buzzell married Miss Ethel
"Thompson" on the same day that Miss Garner expected to become his wife, the plaintiff testified, did she learn where he had been in the intervening evenings.

Miss Thompson, who is now Mrs.
Buzzell, didn't get four evenings of his time to Miss Garner's one, when he was courting her. It was learned that he called once in every five nights on Miss Blanche Bender, 19 years old, daughter of the Rev. Mr. Bender, pastor of the Congregational church in Amboy, once in the same period on Miss Grace Smith, of Oregon, Ill., and the remaining evening he spent in the home of a girl who was in court, but who refused to give her name. She said, however, that if Miss Garner is successful in her suit, she also would try to get part of the bank teller's money.

In fact, three other breach-of-promise suits hinge on the outcome of the present action, which was begun as a sort of test case. The fifth young woman, being Buzzell's wife, naturally will not sue. She says her former rivals have combined against Buzzell because of jealousy.

Miss Garner's tale of woe was accompanied by many sighs and tears. Her former wooer given her a diamond engagement ring, she testified, and she also had 116 love letters from him, which will be read to the jury. She was "all fixed up" to go to church one day, she testified, to become Buzzell's wife, when she received a telephone message that he had married Miss Thompson. She swooned, she said, and was unconscious for two hours. For eight hours after that she was hysterical.

The attorney for the defendant showed the witness a release which she admitted she had signed. In the document she agreed not to sue Buzzell on payment of $200. She got the money, she admitted, but the wound in her heart was too deep to be healed by such a puny quantity of golden salve.

Following her testimony there was a long argument between opposing counsel. The attorney for the defendant maintained that the suit ought to be dismissed, as Miss Garner had accepted $200 in settlement of her claim for damages. The lawyer for the plaintiff contended the plaintiff was mentally insane and in the care of a physician when she accepted the $200 and signed the release.

He said that in view of the wealth of the defendant's family, his social position and his bright financial prospects, the young woman must have been insane when she took $200 in settlement of the good claim she had against him.

The court refused to dismiss the case and adjourned the trial.

Germany can now put 450,000 troops in the field.

4. BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a broken-down system. It is the worst of the vital forces that sustain the system.
The matter what may be its cause (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are such that the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and lack of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life.
Now, what is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigor—

and a new existence imparted in place of what had so lately seemed worn-out, "used up," and valueless. This wonderful restorative is purely vegetable and innocuous. It agrees with the system, and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement, whose main features are those of debility, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this true-failing restorative essence, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this wide-spread and numerous class of human ailments.
